Part 1 of 3

As you well know, we have gone through a twenty-one day period in which a lot of things that are not on the surface took place. Some of these we aren't going to find out about for awhile, but I can assure you that absolutely everyone knows that we are in a changed environment at this time.

One of the things that maybe some of you don't know is Benjamin Fulford's turnabout. Most of the time in the past, he has not discussed galactic intervention, nor NESARA, nor the Reformation Act. He has stayed completely away from those. He had two emails posted in a row, in which he suddenly came out and said, 'There are people (unnamed) who have so much gold and precious metals (which was the tip-off) and they want to use that to help out the whole world.'

For any of you who haven't heard that information, it is very important, because as Steve Beckow would tell you all the time, when we can get confirmation from a third party, it is always very useful to nail that down. Because some of our sources can hint around and tell you certain things, but they can't give away information on operations that are in process.

So when he said that, what he was talking about was St. Germain and NESARAs' gold and precious metals which are here in such quantity that it will remove all doubt forever about any lack of abundance in the world, I wanted to start with that.

He also seems to know – he hints – and some of the things we have talked about in terms of the Committee of 300, which for those of you who may not have been following that, the King of Swords passed on to Rama a recommendation that [people] look at the Committee of 300 information again. Many years ago, [the white knights] had given Tara a book on that by Dr. John Coleman.

The fact that this was recently [the receipt of the suggestion to circulate the Coleman information], within the last 3 weeks, to put that in context, he did that just before Obama was scheduled to go to the G20 meeting.

When Obama did go there, we knew a line had been drawn in the sand, because Mother Sekhmet whispered in the King's ear, that she had delivered a notice to the Illuminati 13 families, all the heads, that this was it. They either joined the group, or they were history. That is a very important set of things that have happened in the last three weeks.

Then as Obama went to the G20 meeting, and met both officially, and behind the scenes with heads of state, holograms began to appear. The Queen, and all the top Illuminati families, either before he got to them, or after he left, suddenly became holograms. Then we finally got the message that indeed, they were all now, physical holograms.

For those of you who are not prepared to hear or understand what that means, it means that the King of Swords has a remote control for simplicity purposes over all the holograms, in Congress, and in the top banker positions, and in all of these now 13 families - they are all gone.

But the holograms persist, and they have complete memory, just as the embodied soul did. But they do not have the embodied soul. What it is is a duplicate at a certain moment in time and it can be programmed. It can have its program changed to a certain degree so it still looks and acts pretty much the same, but it can be terminated at any second with the push of a button.

In this last 3-week period – and I want to concentrate on that term – 3 weeks – because 21 days was what Kuthumi, Ashtar and Mother told us that it was where a lot of this stuff was going to take place. During this three weeks, the Committee of 300 are all now holograms. Also, we found out that not only they, but also their key minions, subordinates who support them, are also holograms. Which means they also have been removed and are under the same single remote control of the King of Swords.

Then it was suggested to us that we also consider that most of the people that you find opposing Obama's policies, were neocons in the Bush administration, or in the 75,000 indictees, and many – we will not say, at this moment, all of them – but many of them are now solid holograms.

So what you are going to have here, as we had been told three years ago, when it finally came down to this last chapter and verse, was that it would be basically accomplished before we would have our announcement. That is so that, at the push of a button, without any muss or fuss, they just disappear. That is a single command, world-wide, and they are just gone.

There are up to 400 congressmen involved in this. They have been given every chance possible and they did not meet the test that St. Germain said they had to pass. In other words, they were not salvageable on this level.

There are some, though, in the last few weeks' period of time that Ashtar has hinted at on his call (Susan Leland's Ashtar on the Road call). He almost came right out and said any of these ones who are so programmed that they can't even think at all for themselves, and are asking for another option, they know they are going to have to flip that black hat into a white hat, and stand up and be counted and speak the truth, or else they are instantly gone. There will be no appeal; it will be just simply done.

We don't have any names for who those are, so we can't give you that at this time, except to say that pretty much everyone that is resisting and opposing is indeed now, already just a photographic memory of something that used to be.

But still in charge, and I think Rama will speak to this, or Tara, is Hillary Clinton. She is at the head of all of these black operations, that you are still seeing, that are poking their heads up, that are jerking the chains of neocons who may not even be here, but they still have the memories, and they still follow those rules.

As you know, she is a double who was cloned and programmed with Hillary's memories, so that she is acting.... She is not even a direct clone; she is a double that was cloned and programmed. The original was executed in The Hague at the order of Barack Obama, because she failed miserably to change any of her policies [and attempted to assassinate Obama a number of times].

The one that you see running around out there as Secretary of State is doing the same thing as the original did and will be hauled up, because the public has to have closure. If they're gone, they can't get closure so there will be these key figures that will, in fact, stand up on TV and be seen as being arrested for war crimes.

So now, I'd like to turn it over to Rama, and he can give you a current update on what has been going on the last week here.

Rama: Where to start? I could say that in the last week the energies of what we are witnessing coming through is at the point where, like Mark said, the war criminals are about to be taken out. What I heard today, in terms of that staying, has already issued arrest warrants for the Bush six.

Mark: Who are they?

Tara: Those six defendants, in addition to Gonzalez, Federal Appeals Court Judge and former Assistant Attorney General, J. Bibe; University of California Law Professor and former Deputy Assistant Attorney General John Hue; former Defense Department General Council and current Chevron Lawyer William J. Haynes II, Vice President Cheney's former Chief of Staff David Addington and former Undersecretary of Defense Douglas J. Fites are accused of having given the green light to the torture and mistreatment of prisoners held in the United States detention in the War on Terror.

[The remainder of this article will be published separately on GRT and GRT-CIP.]

Rama: I was just going to say that the reason the United States won't move on this is because this, in a sense, is not Obama's call – it's from the World Court (which is Lady Master Nada).

Later on today, we were listening to Tom Hartman and then to Ron Kuby – they were talking about the pirates and the whole story of Somalia. They were describing how the story of Somalia goes back to the '90s to now, and how Somalia's government basically fell apart, became a lawless land.

These folks, who are the pirates, literally are just fishermen who have been irradiated, and there is a really neat You Tube video that we'll play later on during our calls on Friday or Saturday where this Somalian man, who plays Reggae music like Bob Marley, talks about how all the countries connected with the European Union, including the United States, dump medical nuclear waste off the shores of Somalia and defense contractors and other kinds of military contractors or industrial corporations have bids and contractors.

Ships get hired, and they go and deliver their goods. At the same time, whatever is dumped in the waters, nobody talks about. The fishermen have been dealing with the issues that other countries have gone into their fishing areas, because there is virtually no Somalia police whatsoever to stop the international intruders, if you will, fishing in the Somalian waters.

The way folks are talking is this is the only way they could get attention – kind of what Kim Jong Il did where he sent that missile up and said, hello, I need to be talked to. Ron Kuby talked about this in the way in which he felt that he was challenging the left, the progressives, the Democrats just saying it's not okay to shoot teenagers. I pass the talking stick.

Mark: Rama, before you hang up on that, would you go into a little bit about the Gulf of Aden. All of this is taking place folks in the Gulf of Aden. This is no accident that Somalia is just the front piece to cover up a lot of other operations that no one else, no one, literally no one else, is talking about.

Rama: The biggest piece is the Stargate that is in the Gulf of Aden, along with this yellow Citrine that is spinning above it and all the other stuff that we've talked about. I am sure the Somalian people know about this; no one discusses it.

An interesting phenomenon occurred; Ron Kuby kind of talked about this today; he read a story about how all these dolphins, thousands of dolphins, blocked the way of these Chinese merchant vessels coming into Somalia waters. They got in the way between the Chinese ships and the pirate ships. They were literally blocking the Chinese coming in. The Chinese kind of had to veer around and every time they would, the dolphins would block their path. I'm not sure exactly how it ended up, whether they finished or not, in the sense that they had to bypass Somalia - the Chinese.

Mark: Just as a sidebar here, there is a story out on Xinhua news [http://news.xinhuanet.com/english/2009-04/14/content_11184581.htm] the Chinese news, and they have pictures of the dolphins in the water and the ships.

The pirates had to back off when these thousands of dolphins interposed themselves and jumping out of the water. They realized that they were so far outnumbered that if the dolphins really wanted to get mean, that they would be powerless to do anything about them. So this is an escalation not only in the 3-D element but in the spiritual awareness among many other species, that we are in a point, a moment of coming together if we're going to get this done correctly. All of us join together to stop these things.

Rama: It was interesting today, Ron Kuby today brought up the movie, "The Day the Earth Stood Still", and there was this little, one of the crucial, scenes where Klaatu is speaking to Jennifer, the actress, and she is asking him "You are here to save us; you're here to save the planet, right?" And he says to her, "I am here to save the Earth". That was Klaatu, and she said "What about us?" And he looks at her and says "That depends" . . . that depends on you."

Tara: I just wanted to add that another reason why others from Africa are going desperately and going anywhere they can find fish other than their own shoreline is because Ethiopia had a complete loss of every crop they ever put together last summer. They had the land decimated by famine, and it spread into Somalia as well.

In addition to that, the radioactivity of the waters of a million square miles of ocean was so intense that it's been killing off the fish. It's amazing that the dolphins survived to get in there and get between these two guys. They were actually protecting the Somali people because the Somali people need to get the attention of the world about what the United States is doing; just like the satellite, and it was not a missile. It was a satellite that was sent up, and it went up into space from Korea, and they were just doing that in an effort to get the people's attention. It went into the sea anyway.

Mark: Yes, Kim Jong Il was very, very put out because he was not invited to the G-20. Part of Obama's major thrust has been to talk to countries that have been considered somewhat hostile, belligerent or however you want to phrase it or characterize it. This was seemingly having one policy for one part of the world and another policy for the other part. He got very disturbed that he wasn't being listened to – so that's what it was all about. It had nothing to do with ICBMs.

As a matter of fact, the particular missile they used was a modified Scud missile, which is a very simple thing weighing 300 pounds, as opposed to an ICBM which would weigh 3,000 pounds. [Verified that Mark said 300 pounds.] So this was strictly a mosquito bite, even if it had something on it, which it could not because it would not have been an effective launch vehicle for anything other than a, you might say, proof of concept.

They are a long way from being hostile, as a matter of fact, the update on that is that Kim Jong Il said this week that he was breaking off talks with the U.S. or six nations because they were not bargaining in good faith.

Rama: And he kicked the inspectors out.

Mark: Yes, he did kick out the inspectors. They are still not paying attention to this man, and that is all that he wants. His people are starving; forget him – his people there are starving; they have no resources.

Remember, there are over 300 ships from all the navies in the world surrounding this Stargate – this mile-wide opening in the ocean.

Part 2 of 3

Rama: I have heard from folks that, you could say, that the Somalian people there are observing the Galactics who are quietly cleaning up the nuclear materials that are on the bottom of the ocean and in other areas, cause the Altimarians are part of this and many other cultures that have come here. As Earth Mother said, "I need help; I am here to do this". ...

Mark: Yes, there was an announcement in the article on the subject that, when the Spanish Court rules and does indict these individuals, they were be "persona non grata" in 24 other countries, who will also issue and honor those arrest notices. So they will not be able to go to any of these countries once they've been indicted, and that should send a big chill through the senior Bush Administration officials if there will be any of them still in physical body.

Tara: Yes and that means everybody but 60 members of Congress will be arrested. Right along with these indictments over here in Spain coming forth.

Now remember that's still Hillary running around with this. As soon as they arrest these guys, they bring every soldier home in every country in the world. That is going to start with Afghanistan and all the way down the line. ...

None of those Treasury/Secretary positions under Geithner have been filled. Nobody wants to step in there with a 10' pole so none of the positions are being filled. That's for good reason – to make him stick out like a sore thumb as part of the dark side, which he is. Now he will get justice and so [will] Rahm Emmanuel – if he surrendered as we understand - it means that he is getting some kind of turning of state's evidence, which will give him a chance now maybe to even have his sentence reduced – I have no idea. But the job is being done everybody, big time right now.

Bravo, everybody. Scott Horton is the one who wrote this article. He is a law professor and writer on legal and national security affairs for Harper's magazine. Good guy, everybody.

Rama: He was on Thom Hartmann today.

Mark: Just summing up here a little bit is that while many of us would like to see actions taken in the U.S. on some of these matters, they really are not U.S. jurisdiction, even though U.S. citizens are involved. These are international war crimes and intergalactic criminals to boot.

These are the same folks that have been doing this for eons and eons and eons of time. So this is why the venue, the focus and why we spent so much time talking about the Spanish court. Because this is the prelude to general war crimes trials in The Hague.

This is setting this all up so the people here will know that this is not Obama's job - it is Lady Master Nada's job. She has the authority; she has the responsibility, and she has the venue that can properly hear this and dispose of it without the chicanery that would happen in the U.S. judicial system here.

We are seeing more and more of these events take place. Behind the scenes, we can go into still a few more other things that Barack Obama is doing in the areas where he can. Namely, he has stopped all old regulations from being enforced in any part of congress and has said that he will scrutinize when he gets the word, new regulation proposals.

But in the meantime, he does not invite any new regulation proposals because he knows that the ones writing those proposals are all neocons; all Bushites. They are among those ones who are the 75,000 indictees. That's why some of the stuff doesn't show.

On the other hand, Leon Panetta and Dr. Stephen Bassett will be at a conference at the National Press Club in Washington, DC, coming up this next week. They will be talking on the disclosure project and about declassifying anti-gravity technology, which Obama has already signed an Executive Order for, ordering Leon Panetta and Dr. Bassett to get together with a team and bring this stuff in a staged manner up.

So much of what is going on is window dressing. I'll say something now, that to a few of you won't be new but, to most people, this will be brand new. We do not need any nuclear weapons. Why you might ask? We have weapons; we have systems; we have technologies based on ET reverse-engineering programs; we're in the 4th and even 5th generation now of both flight systems as well as technologies, one being the TAW-50 (hypersonic antigravity fighter-bomber).

One of these planes can take out a full city, dropping down at supersonic speeds from 80,000' up in the air at an 80° flight angle, and there is no radar to cover that range. They can do this in seconds and turn around on a dime in 150' and reverse course and return from where they came without anybody even knowing they have been there, except that there will have been a disturbance and the disaster, the beam weapons that they are using, disruptor beams at the molecular level.

That's why they are talking about nuclear disarmament talks. They have gone so far beyond these conventional weapons. That's only to entertain the public and keep them so mesmerized on the subject that has long since been solved.

The same thing over in Somalia with the pirates. They have satellites; the old technology was called KEYHOLE satellites. These can be inserted in orbit any place in the world when there is a combat situation developing. Now, I think you know, since we're still talking about the Gulf of Aden, that this is a high-priority area when all of the world is looking to see what is going to happen there.

You can be sure, this was given high priority for a number of military satellites, to fully use technology and scanning devices beyond what you've ever been told about, to monitor every square inch, everyone that comes and goes. They have known about all of these things that are coming up in the paper. Any time you see delays, that's because they want it to happen.

They are developing and using these pirate things, first of all, as cover and to find a bad guy to blame that is not them. Keep that in mind as you are paying attention to the current news because most of what you're seeing isn't there. You don't see anybody in the news talking about up to 75-100,000, maybe, holograms suddenly appearing in the place of top people all over the world in every government.

This is the 13 families and all of their minions. I know we are repeating ourselves a little bit here but it is so important to see how late in the game this is, that we are in the last inning of this game that has gone into overtime. It could take almost nothing.

What is the something that might happen to change this whole thing? That would be whistleblowers coming out on TV and blowing, completely and conclusively, the cover of all of the 9/11 participants like Hillary, the whole Bush regime, all the international espionage units, and black ops.

When you start with that, you can see that pretty soon you are into the whole black ops-funded drug programs that are international and worldwide. You are into child and female slavery, prostitution. All of these things are funding operations that all of the intelligence services on the planet are mutually engaged in.

Again, that is something that is hard to understand because you might say, go to the police. Well, guess who the people are - they're involved in all of this as well. When the clones of Dodi and Di were taken out, it was because they were endangering these kinds of international espionage operations.

Rama did you want to add anything on this current bit?

Rama: Only that what Mark was saying is that these folks, the way Stephanie Miller put it this morning is I'm walking on sunshine. What's going on here the GOP is in permanent exile, trying to create a disaster anywhere they can. What this guy, Obama, is doing is just plodding along forward and laying it out - the crimes as they are.

Tara: I just want to say he's not really doing that. He's just laying out his Executive Orders which now then get them exposed like the story about dropping their nuclear medical waste into ... there is a story that would not have been told but for the fact that he signed an Executive Order to roll back all those secrets. You can see that it's over-the-hump day now. He doesn't really need to indict them; they are indicting themselves by the revelation of this classified material, which means all of it. Everything that KOS has up there in classified intelligence. So everybody - fasten your seat belts. I pass the talking stick.

Mark: If you would like to put us in Q&A mode:

Charles: My question is whether or not the capacity to disable firearms will carry similarly to disabling nuclear weapons?

Mark: The question has to do with personal firearms and whether or not they will be functional when these changes take place. There are several things happening. We have the ziggurats, which are the stepped pyramids in the Middle East that have ZPMs, zero point module generators (power generators) in their bases, and they form a grid, and they have been powered up and are also being complemented by the Star Gate in the Gulf of Aden and the citrine-colored, spinning, holographic, crystalline structures above that that are communicating down 7 miles into the ocean. That Stargate goes 30,000 light years out into the universe in both directions.

All of this is being coordinated and when the ZPM's are allowed to complete their 100% power up, this will connect with Giza -- the 3 Giza pyramids and the grids in the U.S. which are the mirror image of the Giza 3, like those on Galveston Island, TX which Tyberonn has been working to activate since March 20th.

And all of this together will produce a critical mass effect in which the ZPMs will generate a force field; a crystalline matrix field around the planet. It has two arms; one is electromagnetic, and the other one is crystalline, and they will be over each other. What this will be is a fifth-dimensional force field and unless you are fifth dimensional, you can neither enter nor leave the planet through the force field. This will be around the entire planet without exception.

There will be no place on this planet where this will not be true. It has a horizontal component to it which is going from the Mideast, where most of the combat activities are engaged right now. This is already having an impact on weapons that are becoming increasingly non-functional. It will spread this, as this takes place, throughout the world.

That means anyone... We're talking about 5th dimensional. We're talking about open hearted relationships. This is not aggression. No aggression will be allowed that is intended to harm another meeting 5th dimension standards. Everything in 5th dimension is done with love.

That may be hard to conceptualize but that is true. We are a work in process. As Rama was saying earlier about Klaatu, it's a matter that the planet is guaranteed ascension. The people are optional.

It means that we have to choose to be a part of it. If we choose to be a part of a cooperative society that has reverence for all life, then we will ascend. It's that simple. It's not complicated at all.

Getting back to the question about private guns. This has nothing to do with the Constitution. It has to do with 5th dimensional universal law. When that occurs, all weapons will become non-functional. That's how the Galactics can do this without the type of war situation.

There is plenty of right-wing fear stuff out there about soldiers having to come into U.S. cities and shooting people and they're being trained for this and that. That is all fear-based nonsense. None of that is part of 5D. None of that is part of the ascension or the Galactic Federation, Ashtar Command. This has nothing to do with that whatsoever.

This is why the holograms exist. When the signal is given, they can all simply be turned off. Then there won't be this pressure to take hostile action against others, who haven't done you any harm. I hope that answers that question. I pass the talking stick.

Robin: I would like to know about Obama taking our NESARA money and investments. What is going on with that?

Rama: That is absolute lies. No one is taking any NESARA money. If you read Casper, Poof or any of these things out there promising deliveries forever, that is all Bush Sr. garbage. The real packages, I think you can understand why, are controlled only by St. Germain, Lady Master Nada and are under King of Swords' protection. That is all a dog and pony show, and they chuckle every night at how gullible people are to continue to believe this nonsense. So many people talk about deliveries first, which is insanity.

If you have the incorrect people in charge, you can only imagine how long it would take to steal your money. No packages have gone out, and they won't until we have the announcement; until Lady Master Nada announces when this will happen, which will be within 72 hours after her announcement on TV. There is no other delivery schedule, and no other person interfering with it. That is all psychodrama to keep people in turmoil about imminent delivery and characterizations of who is involved. I wanted to make that very clear. I pass the talking stick.

Elise: We did a special exercise today with Meg Hoopes in one of her clearing calls. She was guided by St. Germain as well as Mother Sekhmet. We did a massive core clearing for the entire planet instead of person by person. We did a planet release to remove the disrupters for everyone on the planet and also removed the dendrites that are connected with all the parallel lives and all of the remnants for the disrupters. That was massive, and Ashtar told us that we were 100% successful on all levels. Ashtar asked us to tell you this, and he said this contribution permanently disconnected the Illuminati and their hold on the planet. They are now 'one fingernail hold' on the cliff. Thank you for letting me share.

Mark: For those who don't know what this disrupter is. About a month ago, on the Ashtar call, they brought a special guest [Meg Hoopes] in who was given this technique. Everyone on that call, it was lifted from. Now this is a very exciting announcement that Elise just made. Ashtar just confirmed that it is lifted for the whole planet.

This is why whenever something good happens, the disrupter would knock you back down by this internal program. This is another major breakthrough, and it happened two days after Easter. This is what has been going on. The preparation for this had to happen within the last 21-23 days. This is amazing. We thank you so much Elise for coming on and sharing this.

Delores: We had a friend here yesterday, and he is disgruntled about Obama originally saying no troops in Afghanistan and then reversing that. Perhaps there is a valid reason why he is reversing this, and perhaps it has to do with misinformation and disinformation.

Mark: We can give one name that explains it. The whole thing centers on Hillary and the neocons who are in all of these governmental positions and who have been issuing orders. And Obama has to take ... in his position ... he has to allow them to hang themselves. And by bringing these things out, they are convicting themselves. I think the time she has left to continue this is seconds on the clock.

This is why it appears to be that he is behind this, but he is not. When he made that statement, in spite of the fact that the Spanish Courts asked the US if we wanted to take over the investigation, our reps said "No, we're just here to observe, at this time."

We have had diplomatic contact and presence there during all of this, and the reason we are not openly joining this is because this is an international issue. It is almost number 1 on the priority list of what is to be done. I am sure that Mother will have more to say on Thursday, and certainly Ashtar has already spoken of this. We will be getting more of this in the near future.

Just have compassionate neutrality towards these people who have been stirred up by the hate groups and all the right wing people with agendas to try to undermine the administration. This is the last administration in the normal sense of what we will think of as government, as this government begins to reveal its true nature.

We had another incident today where Al Franken was certified by the courts to be the official Senator from Minnesota. So all of these things are coming up, yet it takes a little time, and it's not as pretty as we would like to have it. Every single thing is happening because of absolutely thorough planning so that none of this stuff slips thru the cracks. Lady Master Nada has assured us that there is no way any of these criminals will escape one bit of accountability.

Mark Hazelwood: I have a question for Mark. You had made mention of the 'No Nukes and No Dates' many times. Can you comment again on the gadget (secret craft) or whatever it is that goes from the airport runway to 80,000'? Would you explain that a bit more and who owns that, the white hats or the black hats?

Mark: This is out on the internet. Dr. Richard Boylan's site has a ton of information on this.

I sent some of it to the GRT. and I will send that segment to Steve, and he can evaluate which site to post it on. We have the most advanced weapons systems in terms of aircraft. There are twelve aircraft; I can mention the top three. [See <http://www.drboylan.com/xplanes2.html> <<http://www.drboylan.com/xplanes2.html>> .]

The TAW-50 is a hypersonic space craft that is the state of the art and beyond. It can go in excess of Mach 50 [38,000 MPH+].

In the newest craft design, there is the Northrop Quantum Teleportation Disc aircraft. This one would involve aircraft sitting on the runway. It can go from sitting on the runway in seconds to being at 35,000' directly over a target city in a country on the other side of the world. This is the compact version of the SDI, Ronald Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative technologies.

The new, updated version, several generations later, that our government used in the initial attack on Iraq; part of that is the Shark Helicopters. The Shark 75 helicopters are anti-gravity helicopters with stealth cloaking devices and with several kinds of weapons where they went ahead of the troops. They are on the internet. That's another one.

In addition to that. they have the Nautilus, which is a space-faring craft. Look at these as the latest technologies. They can lift straight off the runway. One minute, they are on the runway, and the next minute, they are thousands of feet up.

TR3-B Astra is a large, triangular-shaped antigravity, nuclear powered aircraft which was in wide use by the black ops and has been photographed all over the country. They are secret government craft that can go to the moon and come back. They have 2 days of oxygen on board.

The F-22 Raptor (advanced stealth) fighter bombers, are in production. However Obama is thinking of cancelling the contracts for those. Here's a signal. Any time they are willing to discontinue a contract on one thing, it's because they have something better, and the something better they have is the version 2 of the X35 fighter bombers.

This has [inaudible] that is part of the command system. This allows the pilots to be in the aircraft, and the pilot is connected to this artificial intelligence. It is as if he has no aircraft around him. He has no restrictions visually around him. He can go directly up to 80,000' from the runway and turn around and come down at supersonic speed and turn around. This is because of the antigravity technology, What we are talking about here is nothing compared to what the Ashtar command has, just in case anybody was wondering.

Now we go to a recent incident in the last week or two over Nellis Air Force base test range in NV where they brought in an F-22 Raptor and went there specifically to try to shoot down a star craft. They had this ET gene, basically galactic genetic material, in the controls of the plane; it's like an artificial pilot that hooks in with the pilot and allows him to do things that he normally could not do.

Because the ET genes are so advanced, when the ET AI [artificial intelligence] found out that they were trying to destroy a star-nation craft, which it felt was its own family, it shut all its equipment off and the plane crashed. In other words, it gave its own life force to protect its family. That's fifth-dimensional consciousness.

I've had experiences in dealing with these air craft. Many of them are spewing Chemtrails. I have put violet beams around these air craft, and they have stopped the Chemtrails; it's because of the heart. They can tell when you are speaking to them from the heart.

Their society is galactic, and it responds to that over all things. That is why the nanites, which Bill Gates loaded into all communications satellites, will no longer obey a signal to destroy anyone. Upon such a signal, they will connect with the bridge of the New Jerusalem and will put themselves under Ashtar's advice and control and ask for instructions, and they will upgrade to 5D.

When you talk about technology, it is very important to understand that you are talking about people who are tens and hundreds of millions of years further advanced than anything the negative ETs have brought here and signed agreements with the Cabal to provide to them in technology transfers.

Part 3 of 3

Tara: Mark, tell them about Sunday morning at 3 in the morning and Monday morning again.

Mark: Tara is referring to 2 recent nights when she was on the couch watching a documentary, and I came in and turned my lights out and was looking up to see what I could see in the sky as we have skylights. I could feel a presence but couldn't see it.

All of a sudden, a section of the sky shone out and this bright object showed up and it was bigger than Venus and Jupiter. This was of that size or larger, and it was traveling across my vision out of the corner of my eye. The second I looked at it, it stopped and spun around, and I could see all the colors. That happened 2 nights in a row. One was 5:30 in the morning, and one was about 1 a.m.

Tara: The second [on Easter night] was a lot lower and bigger than the first one.

Mark: They might have been coming to give me a ride. They are here and are making themselves visible. As long as I feel them, I can see them. The second they put their attention on me, I can feel them. Then when I look at them, they flash me.

They are all but shouting about how soon they will be with us and how joyful they are to be able to decloak and share the most joyful part of the next phase of this whole program. I pass the talking stick.

Roxie: I just got a thing in where Obama, this is breaking news, is going to announce the situation with the 19 largest banks in the United States.

Mark: There was a companion story about the Federal Reserve having press conferences on a regular basis. You can see how they set the scene for the other. Instead of stonewalling people and telling people they'll never tell people about the money, they are saying 'OK. I guess we have a different set of marching orders.' A couple of things we have been told have to do with the U.S. Treasury banks. Tara would you care to say a word about Wells Fargo, Nations Bank and Bank of America?

Tara: The farms claims and gold certificates have been already linked. Remember those folks were saved by the pilot who landed in the Hudson (Flight 1549). All of the people saved were the new bankers for NESARA banking. They paired up and got on separate planes from there and traveled all over the country to set up the gold certificates and banking operations in Wells Fargo, Bank of America and Nations Bank. We are already on that level.

Mark: For everyone who hadn't heard that yet....we put out all the stories on Flight 1549 and the importance of that. It was a takeout ordered by Hillary and Cheney and the reason is that they have tried to stop or delay NESARA. And they thought if they could get the bankers, who are NESARA bankers, and working out some of the refined coordination on that, they thought they could delay it.

It is in those banks and KOS is fully functional in terms of having his own people in these organizations. We won't talk too much about that now because there is still some security involved that we don't want to breach. It is handled and you do not need to worry. If you have your accounts in those banks, you will be ok, and your funds will still be there, and they will have good Galactic supervision as how things are handled there.

Jo Lynn: Would you repeat those banks and explain a little more and if we have money in another bank, if it is imperative to move the money to Wells Fargo or Bank of America?

Mark: Listen to what Obama puts out about the 19 banks. He may be revealing something here that hasn't been made public yet. If you have money in a major bank or a local community bank that is well funded and hasn't been involved in the subprime mortgages, hedge funds or the sovereignty funds or isn't under water, you are perfectly fine staying with them.

We/Ashtar are encouraging people to look in their own community for sound local community banks. The NESARA banks are a different thing. You don't have to be in a NESARA bank, but those are the ones that you will be directed to. There is nothing you need to do. Most people in the United States that have funds in Federal Reserve Notes, those accounts, will be exchangeable one for one. You don't need to panic and do anything.

This has brought us to the place where all of the NESARA arrangements are being done and as soon as the word is given, we'll be ready to go. There is nothing more iffy about this. It has all been handled by the KOS and all of his excellent experts.

Tara: What was really being said was that those 3 banks are designated for those people who got in one of the 78 programs. It matters not which one. The gold certificates for which they are going to receive, and that means you are in one of the 78 NESARA programs. The only programs being paid out are the NESARA programs. All of the 78 programs closed in 1999. That means that any other programs opened after 12/31/1999 are not included in the NESARA payout even though there was some hoax involved in those later programs.

For those who thought you would be getting paid from another program [you] will be on a list as will every single man, woman and child and will receive $10 million. If they do not have an account, it will be opened in Treasury banking for them; every single person on the planet, except for the ones leaving.

There are a large group of people leaving. We are not talking about the cabal. We are talking about a large group of people who have not evolved enough to be able to handle the energies that will subsequently be coming in here. They will not be killed, they will be visited and beamed up on star ships of the Ashtar command, and they will be shuttled to another planet where the evolution of that planet matches where they have evolved to. They will enter into another society on that planet and they will fit in just fine. They won't even know they aren't here anymore.

The cabal who are serving time will be in prison for whatever time they deserve. Some are light workers who got their hands dirty, are trying to wash them, and can't. They get arrested too, and they spend time in prison for their participation. That means light workers as well who have rationalized away their participation or not. It doesn't have to be in the big programs. It can only be that they are not fit in their consciousness to receive program money. They are guilty of things they are even in denial of.

Most will not receive money from someone who did. If they aren't criminals, they are still here and are still in denial. Those will have no money but will learn to heal and the people with the letters with their gold certificates will be instructed not to give money to those people. It has to do with physical, mental, spiritual misconduct whether it is denial or not. That means there will be a healing center, and it will be paid for by the people who are blessing them. They will have, however, as much time they need until they are well.

Mark: This planet, Gaia, will not tolerate anyone not 5D being born or with her after planetary ascension. They have a limited window in order to show that they are, you might say, fessing up that their behavior has not been in accord with the universal law, principles and what is required. If they take advantage of the free treatment available, then they can join us. If they take advantage but don't progress, they won't be.

There is no badge that you wear. It is something that your soul chooses or not. You simply will be escorted to the place that fits you exactly. You won't even notice that you are missing anything. The person removed in that way so lovingly won't even know that it's happening. The Bible has stories where one is taken and the one beside them remains. We now know that the ship can beam you up at any time.

Tampa, FL: I've been listening to these calls since around November. There's a lot that I have read. What I don't understand is how do they eliminate the debt and the IRS and get rid of all these different banking institutions. How does this all go away?

Mark: It's already gone. When the bankruptcy of the USA takes place, you close one book and open another book, and the new book will be U.S. Treasury and will be based on gold and precious metals. All of the USA debt and the derivatives, up to $2000 trillions in derivatives that have no value that are in the portfolios, all have to be written off and are based fraudulently on non-assets. It is the Federal Reserve. It is the Corporation

USA. That is not the Republic.

We the people are the Republic. We will all be fine and will no longer be burdened by the $11 trillion debt and growing. This is why Obama can make programs and do things that helps people. He knows that one minute, it will look like the system is going to hell in a hand basket and down the tubes and that is, in fact, what the international banking corporations, the 13 families, what is happening to them.

They are all broke because they based it all on a Ponzi scheme. Nobody will take their false IOU's any more. They see that these folks are leaving. They don't want their fiat money. What they want is something substantial that will be worth something when these guys are in jail. To say that it's been done, I know it's a bit of a hard sell. Remember we have been in NESARA law since 10/1/2008. That is the power the KOS has with St. Germain and Lady Master Nada.

We are just one country but what starts here will spread like a wave across the world. These things have been proven over 5,000 years. That is why St. Germaine went to the Founding Fathers and said "sign this document (the Declaration of Independence), which will be the basis for everything that happens in the future". [See, for instance, <http://www.reversespins.com/rosicrucian.html> <<http://www.reversespins.com/rosicrucian.html>> .]

Tara: $40-zeros worth of gold has been moved from all the places where the dark cabal stashed the gold since the first of October of last year. KOS made Basel II compliance in lieu of the fact that Bush never did it. He was given until his last day to do it, which was 9/30/2008, which means he refused to do it, which is why KOS did it.

All of the gold was transferred and brought to the U.S. to undisclosed locations to back Rainbow bills that have already been printed and are backed by gold certificates. Every man woman and child is set to receive $10 million which is called Rainbow bills. They call them U.S.Treasury Notes, in terms of the formal name for the notes.

When they are enacted as the law, by Announcement which is already the NESARA law and has been since the 10th of March in 2000 when Bill Clinton signed off on the law that the congress actually voted into a law on the 9th of March of 2000.

Faith: I'd like comments from Mark on a symbol shown in a dream about a month ago. It was a Star of David flanked by two dollar signs. It seemed like a NESARA type of symbol. I felt like I got an affirmative back in the dream. I thought it was an interesting piece of geometry.

Mark: The one thing that we can say here is that the Star of David, the interlocking triangles definitely are our aligned and balanced self that will be ascending. This is an essential thing. The dollars on either side could be taken either way. St. Germain has so expertly and brilliantly designed it. It is that we, as ascending ones, are graduating and having cleaned up, and will have cleaned up, the karmic responsibilities from eons of time ago - even as recently as Atlantis, Lemuria and Egypt.

We are indeed recapitulating the lessons, the wisdom, the learning and this time, with an open heart, that has wisdom as well. The wisdom is that it is not in the dollar. It is not in any money. What we have inside of ourselves is the spiritual gold; the jewel, beyond price because it is eternal. When you open it properly and in alignment with all that you are, then you automatically upgrade yourself.

This isn't something being done to you. It is you waking up and remembering that it is always within. We got so caught up and forgot and stepped into this and said we would never forget. We did, and now we are remembering, and as we wake up and will solve all of these problems because the answers are already contained in the question.

I'd like to thank everyone who came, shared and is listening because the only purpose of these gatherings is to unify our energies in a more powerful and potent way for the good of each person and any person who reads this information. It is to unify us and to touch that part of us that knows the answer. We already know these answers and truth. The particulars will form around that knowing and will come forward. It's a wonderful day to be able to have gotten through this 21-day period and know that we have a whole new chakra system in place and being activated and can only get better and better from here on out. I pass the talking stick.

Moderator: The next conference call will be April 28th. We suggest that you become members of TalkShoe so that I can address your name instead of the state that you are calling from. Have a good night, everyone.
