Part 1: Mother Sekhmet's briefing

MS - Greetings. In the light of the most Radiant One, in the office the Christ and only in the office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energy of St. Germaine and the Violet Flame.

Tara - We ask, at this time, for the communication technology doctors on the ships to stand by and oversee this telephone and its connection to the universe of all present. I, also, invoke that this broadcast be broadcast into the mind, heart and spirit of Earth Mother, Gaia herself and her Twin Flame [inaudible] and that we assert as a group that we are ascending the planet together, tonight, as you speak to us. Thank you Mother. Greetings.

MS - Greetings wondrous beings of light, love, peace and joy. HmMMM. Wild events unfolding in your world where crafts are showing up - all kinds of folks. This one story that got reported; many stories go unreported.

It has to do with that funny situation that the folks that sit in that five-sided structure called Pentagon, and they think they own the planet. We have to say they own nothing, maybe not even their souls, except that it is imperative we send them even more love in that sense. The light's on - nobody home. That's going on all over the planet, in the sense of everybody is affected by ascensionitis.

We means that's not the only pandemic going on. No pity. They want to create anything. It is so bad, it is at the point, hmMMM that the old men of the Sylph can't even keep up with the reporters. We would just say, in terms of the reality that is unfolding in your world, war crimes tribunals and the whole process coming up. It is already, the stages are being set, in the sense of what has to come for the accountability and the healing of nations.

MS - It is not just the soldiers or our children - not really children - Indigo crystal beings that have gone off to so-called, serve. Who are they serving? What master? This would not be the master that we know who says I would clothe you, feed you, shelter you, would not bomb you into submission, democratic, socialistic.

All ideas are not based in the galactic laws of we are all one. It is in the sense where their whole nature of reality is shifting at this time in cosmic flux. Hmmm, there are cooler heads that prevail in the story of all this, that are already forming your World Congress. Lord Kuthumi, is one of them, whispering in the right ears to get the job done, along with Lord Maitreya, so that we can show up with our tail at the podium along with all of you - Whatever guise you want to come in - provided the birthday suit you manifested. It is that reality where we are all one, no matter what species or life it is. It is all sacred. As the war story comes to a close very quickly now, even though it is at fever pitch of different scenarios blaring quite loudly throughout the world along with the distractions.

Now it is about too many stories not dealing with what needs to be said, in terms of if a species is in conflict with another species. We'll figure out a way how to talk even if it is in flashes of light and frequency sound. Whatever species we are, there are always ways we can talk, rather than use force, and we are just saying, at this time, what is occurring is the nature of now is the time for peace. Working with others quietly behind the scenes.

Benjamin [Inaudible] involved; others, maybe Rosie O'Donnell, her brother, other folks connected with Rachel Maddow, Ellen DeGeneres. It is about equality for all life forms, no matter who and what you are. How things get resolved, in the sense, where we can come in and add the extra emotion-ship so that all of us can light up and you go, "much better now". It is in that reality of what is occurring on all levels, and your friends in black who want to put the white hats on, yet that is the struggle with the hand, another force controlling the hand called the old programming connected with Lucifera. Got to drop that and let it go.

[Break in connection and inaudible] and you can dissolve them with your thoughts. It is called [Inaudible/connection kept breaking up] how to interact with [break in connection]. We were just saying it's like that voice going up and down. In that reality, we get lost in what we're saying and oh my; where do we go from here? We are just saying it is at the point where the coach on the field has said "time out". Got to talk about the next step.

The next step is how your Senate Judiciary Committee, how all of the folks of the highest order, even those black robes in the justice system, all getting a good talking to from the folks who know real justice. We would say, in the next few moments, you are going to be seeing Nuremberg # 2 held in Washington DC for the war crimes. It has to do with the fact that Mr. Obama hand, it goes back to the Bush/Clinton crime family, as Mr.

Mike Malloy puts it, and that has to be dealt with.

Water boarding is torture. Any form of separating the mind from the heart is torture. Post-traumatic stress disorder of raising your threat level, with the next story about Osama and his army of evil coming to get you. All of it; that creates a trauma in the auric field and the thought form. This is why they did what they did, and many of our children, young men and women, watched the lies on 9/11 and afterwards and recruited themselves off into the desert based on a pack of lies.

Now it is coming full circle and the 52 deaths has to do with the 52 war criminals. Hmmmm. That is not just 52, hmmm 100,000 indictments - Mr. Fitzgerald gonna have to bring in, he's gonna need maybe 4 or 5 tables to lay it all out before the arbitrator. It is just so over the edge of how the people, do we move forward. We have to rely on what we understand, in terms of a solar council that is based in truth, freedom and justice. We are not doing a hype for Superman; we are just saying all of the stories, the legends, based on these energies by principals of what is being based in your Moorish law.

It is these truths, wisdom, justice, peace, first and foremost peace. That's how we get to land and hang out with you for the cup of tea, and we will pay the bill. The waiter can take the day off along with the cook. We are just saying, we're going to have a long cup of tea because this is gonna take awhile, to tell you the story; since we are all story tellers, as healers, as musicians, jugglers, wizards; we're all going to have to share and pass the talking stick. We know that we're going to need a forklift load full of Kleenex when we're done.

Tara - (Laughing) Mother, I still say go for it.

MS - It is at that level. How does a family talk about healing the issues of war and coming to fullness. We do it in a circle, and oh my, what a big circle this one is. Speaking of which, we'll pass the talking stick.

Tara - Okay, Mother, that's a deal.

Part 2: Q&A with Mother Sekhmet

Marietta - We are grateful for all of your insights. We have quite a number of questions that have been emailed in. So I will start with some of those and get your response to them. One of the first questions was about if you could compare the twin flame and soul mate, maybe what the lessons or the purpose, the differences. Could you comment on twin flames and soul mates and what we might gain from each one?

MS - Often times, soul mates are connected with soul groups. We incarnate in soul groups to get the jobs done that we volunteered to show up for, when we read the fine print and then we lost the book called ET101. It is a bit of a jolt, yet it is as serious as a heart attack because how do you work within a world that considers alien life forms as hostile? Who's alien anyway? Soul groups - we incarnate.

Marietta - So a twin flame then, I think the question is, what is the purpose, what do we gain as far as a lesson or the purpose of finding our twin flame or connecting with our soul mate?

MS - Okay, we will say that when we incarnate in soul groups, sometimes one stands out more than the rest in the soul group, and you are drawn together. You work within that soul group to activate the others exponentially. Twin flames is when two folks within that soul group match exactly, and it is like watching one being or two wings of the same bird, you could say, and how that energy works.

Tara - A white bird, Mother?

MS - A white bird in a golden cage.

Tara - Yeah, that's what I thought.

Marietta - Okay, well we thank you for your insights on that. Then there's a question about how do we get out of Afghanistan?

MS - That is very interesting. It is all going back to that morning called 9/11, where it had nothing to do with Afghanistan yet Mr. Shrub and his evil mentor decided that they were going to attack America and blame it on Osama. Osama is in on the deal and gonna walk away with trillions; nobody will know the wiser, and we'll blame it on those folks in Afghanistan. We won't get caught. Anyways, we don't really want to go to Afghanistan. We want to go to Iraq; they've got more oil there. Isn't this about oil?

Mark - The white lady.

MS - Yes, China white - heroin. All of this has to do with the shifting of what occurred in the global structure, of what happened in the sense between the exit of Clinton and the entrance of Bush illegally and unlawfully, when they stole the election from Lyndon LaRouche and Mr. Al Gore.

Mr. Bush and his daddy threatened civil war, and all of it has to go back to the story of, when they were going to do this; it was called 9/11 and blame it on Afghanistan. What is coming full circle is Mr. Obama is getting ready to announce war crimes tribunals, and in that sense, along with Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. Eric Holder, Lady Master Nada. We will just say that the troops will be brought home from Afghanistan.

When? We have to say as Nesara is announced, peace is declared. Already, those seeds are being laid before the situation in terms of Maitreya and Kuthumi already in the process of making it happen. We pass the talking stick.

Marietta – Thank you for your comments there. The next question is can you please describe what we can expect to see when we visit Agartha and the crystal cities so that we can have some nice mental images?

MS - What you will see is many of the legendary light forms that were on the surface that are still intact and they do not eat each other. They eat liquid light or maybe fruits, grains, nuts, seeds or drink sacred water that comes from an inner earth streams that are connected with the core of the planet.

Many of the folks are 10 to 22 feet tall; sometimes 40 to 50 feet tall, and it is just the variations in species in terms of how we all interact with each other in grace, beauty and love. Dignity, no animosity, no war, no issues of race or creed or color or stuff about who's rich, who's poor; we are equal as one and that is what is happening here on your planet, the outer side of the planet.

What's happening on the inner? All of it coming to fruition where many folks will be coming out to share their wisdom of how we created here along with us. Many craft, you can travel with on the inner earth that are based on the magnetic wave energy where you never need something called a car. You travel in what could be, that which is called land stedar or something of that nature.

Those little shuttle craft, maybe like George Jetson has, already folks are inventing this stuff with your conventional fuels, even water. We are already saying Mr. Fiat, whoever is the CEO of Fiat, working on crystalline-based energy source for Fiat cars. It is already in the works where electric energy squeezed it hard enough, and he watched lightning occur. The kind of lightning that is made manifest, that comes from the hammer of Thor. We are just saying, it is in the reality. You never have to drop one more of Mother Earth's things called oil. I went on a rant. We will pass the talking stick.

Marietta – We love your rants. Next question, what is the condition of the North Atlantic current, the one spoken of by Al Gore that flows by the East Coast of North America and over Northern Europe, Britain in particular and also of the others Mr. Gore spoke of, very real potential of it shutting down completely with a disastrous effect on the weather of the planet. Are the Altamurians working on that, too?

MS - We would say that they are trying to create some stories called the Day after Tomorrow; that is where Al Gore got many of these wild stories about that.

Tara – Except for . . . no. There is also a truism that the current there, as the ice would melt, this definitely would happen. It would cause the coastal areas to rise. Therefore, much of the waterways along the coast would disappear on all the British Isles, and even as you can see, as it were to rise significantly in the I AM America map, which has been mitigated, yet there is no British Isles left. They are all gone.

MS – Don't know what to say yet. We would just say many of the stories that have been told have been mitigated, yes. We will say that in events of those kinds of understandings, we would give fair warning, or you would already have fair warning.

Tara – Let me ask you one question just to get clarification. Since you are telling us this, and since we know that enormous amounts of water have to go somewhere. How would you mitigate these enormous amounts of water and redistribute them without causing harm to the land mass?

MS – There are ways in which to convert the waters into energy to create working with your atmosphere and the Xenon gas to create the shield that was once here. Where you have a bit of what is already called an inner shield around the planet, and this is produced within the Xenon gas atmosphere, oxygen, nitrogen, everything else that is needed along with the gold dust.

Tara – Okay, now wait a minute. We're talking about exorbitant amounts of water. I mean it's not going to just vaporize.

MS – We are talking about technologies we would not be able to describe it in your language. You will say see them.

Tara – When are those going to show up? Are they already here?

MS - It's already happening with the Altamurians and many other cultures that are from off worlds.

Tara – Okay, so are you saying that, I mean, in 2018 / 2017 like in there, they're saying that's another huge wave of earth changes. Do you think that as we do our homework in a timely matter, that we can mitigate all of those?

MS – We would just say that much of what has been shown in the I AM America map quoting Michael Scalion, we would say much of that has been shifted to holographic programs, Yet and still, the Pacific Rim of Fire, fully active, and we would not under estimate. We are just saying there are millions of craft standing by in the event of certain geological, geophysical changes. We have the right instrumentation to compensate for Terra forming in the right manners. I hope we answered the question.

Tara – Could it mean that you can mitigate 100% of any future earth changes or will they still be some?

MS – We would just leave that up to the folks called the 'midway caretakers' of your reality, in the sense of the builders of form in the sense of the geometric life forms that work with the nanites. We are just saying from the tiniest elementals of etheric life, all the way up to the angels that sit before the throne of the Father are involved in this. Gaia has already come back, and Terra Nova is the other side of the story, where we sit here on a phone somewhere in time. It is just part of the program, computer end program. Next question.

Marietta – This has to do with, during our current individual trials and tribulations, to contribute in the highest form toward our evolution into the higher dimensions, even if we don't completely understand it, we're told to meditate. But, how do we know we're using the right procedure? We get advice from so many places and are advised that we'll just know when we are on the right track.

MS – We would just say that as you work with the energies of working in the understanding of fields, think with your heart, feel with your head. In that sense, as you work within the structures of the violet flame frequency and the office of the Christ, your body, mind, spirit will instruct you in the right ways how to work. As Cynthia has said, call in the spirit doctors and ask for instructions, and they will give it to you in plain understanding.

Mark – May I add a related question to that? One of the things that we've been discussing lately on the round table is that when we have our announcement and decloaking, in particular, after that – especially after landings, that we would all (perhaps all) have a galactic advisor/guide (whatever you want to call the name of that) and probably this is just a being who we're already connected with for many long cycles of time, but that will be consciously appearing, shall we say, to advise each person on their personal path. Can you comment on that?

MS – What we would say is as we land and different soul groups connect with different soul worlds and representatives and as we interact with each other. In the sense of that place you described is how to mingle. We will be distributing the universal babble fish in your ear, so that you understand all languages, all at once, to make it quite simple. We will be sticking a universal translator in your hand, not sticking anything in your ear, making a bad joke.

Mark – somebody already did that Mother. For a week, I haven't been able to hear out of my left ear due to a wax plug. I was hoping it might be a babble fish in the making. Thank you.

MS – We would just say that you will be given a universal translator, how we can all interact and communicate. Of course, we already know the language which we are using here, since we all know all universal languages. We'll be upgraded how to interact with each other.

Tara – Mother, where's my com badge?

MS - Coming up, first you have to go through Star Fleet academy and a few laps around the universe as well.

Tara – Class is now in session. I want to go for a ride, are you offering rides?

MS – Yes.

Tara – Okay, how many can we do at once?

MS – Let us just say, 50 to 100?

Tara – Beam me up, Mother.

MS – Okay.

Tara – Alright, we're all ready.

Marietta - I think the whole roundtable family wants to go.

MS – We understand. We will be . . .

Tara – Can you put a thought in Ashtar's ear, and then you can have him bring us all up at once and you can come and visit and we can all see each other together in the Ready Room or on the Bridge, whichever be your pleasure Mother.

MS – The Ready Room is not large enough. We will say that is the Captain's prerogative. We would not presume to move in on him. We will say that we will bring it up in conversation when he is off duty and see what he says.

Tara – Thank you, Mother.

MS – Yes.

Marietta – Do you have anything you want to say in summary? We've got about five minutes that we could open the lines. Do you want to do that first or do you have a summary statement you want to make before I open for question and answer.

Mark – Mother, there is one question, another one that is out there on the subject. As we have these sightings that are going on now including landings, the Wesak Valley, Idaho and other places, Mexico, everywhere, all around the planet, we are getting these reports. These have to do, and you spoke earlier when we were talking about earth changes and the firmaments and the new Stargates that are going to be opening up, connected with this. Could you say anything more on the current status of those items?

MS – In terms of the frequencies of Stargates and the energies unfolding across your planet, in terms of how things are progressing, we will just say your Navy still sits within the area concerning the Gulf of Aden and watching the Stargates antics unfold. They're still talking about Somali pirates and UN thinking about bringing in more craft - their craft called the Bolts, to observe unnatural phenomenon that is occurring, in terms of how all the Stargates line up along different meridians and grid points of your planet, much like how your maps are laid out as if you were looking at a globe from a great distance. In a sense, you can take that three-dimensional globe, toss it and spin it around, do whatever you wish just like Google Earth.

We would just say that what is occurring throughout all of the different grid patterns, energy rising to the occasions to accept higher frequencies coming in from the Photon energy fields, as well as the gold dust coming in, waves of this; it has to do with the aurora borealis along with solar wind. (inaudible) part way in terms of admitting frequencies off the scale.

Mark – One of the things, Mother, that we heard about before was that near the end of this month, that there was a chance that a new Stargate opening off somewhere off of Miami, or somewhere in that area.

MS – We would say yes, the Coral Castle energy.

Mark – The 19.5° area. Is that still a probability?

MS - Yes it is.

Mark – So are they going to divide the world Navies in half and talk about Cuban pirates now?

MS – Or maybe they might say Raul and Fidel are cooking up a story with ancient Atlanteans. The army of Muhr men are going to invade the U.S.A.

Mark – We'll look forward to that piece of fiction when it comes out. They are going to find out very quickly, I would suspect, that even the corporate TV are not going to carry those stories much longer without being laughed off the internet.

MS – We have to take it to the level of the Cartoon Network, Aquaman, would not attack anyone.

Marietta – I find it so fascinating that when Robert and I were ready to start a center here. We had our new age techniques product business, and we had new dimensions of living which was our foundation. But none of that seemed to fit as what we would call our center. We were told to call it Stargate Re-creation center, and we didn't even know at the time what a Stargate was.

So I think it's really interesting; all this talk about Stargates and now we're continuing to be involved in this all of these years. But we were so naïve about Stargate, we called it that without even knowing. When we were challenged to do a Stargate conclave in the early 90's and brought in people from all over the country, a Stargate conclave, we didn't even know what that was hardly at the time.

Now here we talk about this, and many, many, many people are knowing about it. Just following guidance, but not knowing what was really, really going on, so it has been an interesting evolution here. Kathy are you on the line? Do you have anything you wanted to say in closing here before we go to do our closing with Kathy, Mother?

MS – We will just say in closing, as we are witnessing what is unfolding here, as we have passed through the energies of Hunab Hu, what is manifesting now as you approach this new moon. Oh my. We are just saying that everything is coming full circle, in terms of time for Mr. Fitzgerald to be doing his opening remarks concerning the accused. We pass the talking stick.

And peace is the order of the day. Now is the time for peace. How we create peace is we have to heal this biggest issue, as the world it is so we can move forward. In that sense, it's not about retribution, anger, revenge; it's about closure on all levels, even on the spiritual levels; closure for all nations so that we can finally state, "Hitler is dead". We can have peace.

Tara – Yes, forever.

Mark – All the forms of that.

MS - And so be it. We pass the talking stick.

Marietta: Thank you. Thank you. We are grateful, and everyone is grateful for all you bring to the call and the insights, wisdom and understanding so that we have a better idea of how to proceed in the future.
