

MOTHER SEKHMET TELECALL 8/13/09 - Part 1

CALLER: When First Contact happens and the ships land, what is their purpose for coming and what will they be doing once they are here?

RAMA: I would say, that the first thing, first and foremost, is as peace is declared, they show up and guide us to the next level of evolutionary development. Where there are ship counselors who will come and interact with all the world's officials, considering in the sense "who are officials." The ship counselors would be coming down and we would be interacting with them, and also as First Contact occurs, what it means is that peace is declared. All the militaries across this planet, I mean they are non-existent, where they are completely standing down and their weapons are rendered inoperative completely. And they know, as well as everyone else knows, there aren't going to be any side potshots going on.

TARA: Nothing.

RAMA: This is about negotiation, mediation at a level in which we would say, the grace of the ONE, the Creator Source, is here speaking with all of us, all of you. And in that sense, as First Contact occurs, it is most imperative that it is coming from a place of balance and neutrality, and that place is, you know, there's no games. You can feel it in your heart. It is coming from a place of oneness. It is such orgasmic, ecstatic joy. All you can sense is beta endorphins [molecules of love] going off in your brain. It is about Love, that incredible Love, nothing else.

CALLER: Thank you, Rama.

RAMA: Yes. I guess I should take the talking stick and talk about what I've been hearing, oh my god, since we talked last. I'll just say that we went and sat with Swami G. We went over this weekend past to sit with Swami G Purna who is an immortal. I'll just say that right out. He's been around forever, as long as Mother. And it was like sitting with Mother. That's the way I can describe it. This being, it is said equal to that energy. It is about that grace that's coming in right now that is touching all the lives of every single being that has to do with change. And the concept of what was brought in as between last year and this year, what I can relate it to, is what Dr. Richard Hoagland has talked about. Where it goes beyond personality stuff. It is about a Galactic Command that is coming in to help us learn the higher levels of the higher harmonics of the speed of light, where we all are working at such a level of radiance, oneness, love, and grace that it affects all matter on all levels. And when you are coming from that place, anything that comes in the radiance of that, is touched by that love and that grace and it comes back to wholeness and love. It is so simple. And on another level, what I have heard in these last few days about the so-called raging drama that's going on the political scales of this planet, everything but the truth is being said. There are going to be NO death panels. I repeat, NO death panels. Granny is not going to be sent off to die by Obama.

TARA: Well, we all know that.

RAMA: What is being said out there is, the fact of the matter is, all these beings are so, in a sense, not listening to that inner oneness going on. That is the roaring train coming into the station, and it is so loud that you have to be blind, deaf, and dumb not to hear the energies coming in at such a level. And it is at that place where we have to surrender to that love and that grace. Even these GOP in exile who are trying to push fear, and it is going nowhere. And like Keith Olbermann said tonight, they are doing such damage to their party. All we can do is love them and watch. And in a sense, love them more. And if there is a sliver of hope in that consciousness, send it the understanding that we take this to a higher level. It's not about race. It is about one source of energy, humanity. We are ONE. No matter whether we are blue, or green, or from Zeta Reticuli or Alpha Centauri. It is, we are ONE race, humanity in all its loving forms and grace. And as we get that one, the ships land, and then we can have the real talk. All of this is hors d'oeuvres.

MARIETTA: Okay, we thank you for that. I know I have had more phone calls this week. We had Lloyd Meir on last week and he was talking about the nano technology of course, everything starting with the cell. Of course that is what the nano water is that he talks about. If we were all meant to drink water out of streams and lakes, it would be small enough that it could nourish the cell or would push it through our pipes. It ends up being lumped together and that is why we end up being dehydrated. When it doesn't take a lot of water to hydrate us if it was actually getting into the cells. We also have to look at the nano technology PXP. We had heard about that. It was kind of a nano-nite speaking about that. I've never had so many phone calls on one subject, two different things as I've had this week.

Add rest of Marietta's PXP information ?????

PAULA: This is Paula in Texas. I can't believe for 3 weeks I've been out every night watching the ships. They're working constantly and there seems to be a main one that's in the south and when it turns red and flashes, in comes another ship, and they are all different sizes. And I look at them through the binoculars, and they are like a circle, like a ball. And at the bottom of them, they have some kind of lighting, which I assume is their power. And I have 3 neighbors and we watch them every night. We've seen hundreds of them, all sizes, and nobody said a word about it. Do you guys, do you all know they are up there?

MARIETTA: What part of Texas are you in?

PAULA: Wichita Falls. There are air bases near me.

TARA: I was going to say, Lady Master, when the student is ready, the teachers arrive. And you and your neighbors are ready and some other folks may not be. And that's awesome. Thanks for sharing that one.

PAULA: I see at least 20-30 every night before I go to bed and they may doing this all night long. I've been so excited, I couldn't wait to tell you.

MARIETTA: Well thank you for sharing. And you know the fact that you shared this may encourage somebody else to go out and look, and they may be able to see them too. But they haven't even paid attention.

PAULA: Most of them have red lights. They first look like airplanes. But when you look through the binoculars, they are not a plane. They are just gorgeous. They've got lights all over them. I just wanted to tell everybody so they at least can see them. Go outside. They start about 9:00 [pm] and they go until 1:00 [am] in the morning. I'm going out again tonight. Good luck seeing them because they are so easy to see. That's all, thanks.

MURIEL: This is Muriel from Houston. Is it true that September 30th all banks will be compliant with Basil 2 and 3?

TARA: Basil 2 and 3 was complied with last year's September 30th. Actually October 1st by the KOS and if you want to say something about the public, Rama?

RAMA: I will just say that as many times Thom Hartmann has said that they would do a banking holiday and they would..... And I've seen rumors on the internet where they are talking about closing certain sections of the country. Closing some banks, opening others, keeping them open, and I'm not sure what is going on. What I have heard from the King about this issue is that there would be a banking holiday, and then after a certain, let's say, a week, two weeks, then new Treasury banking would be the modus operandi, and it would not be Amero.

TARA: Wait a minute, that's a little bit in detail. It's already been done. In other words, the entire banking system and the government operation of corporation and the IRS have been insolvent since midnight on the 31st of March by Paul Andrew Mitchell's case. That's a twenty-year court case coming to its conclusiveness. This is fact, yet the public has not been in due discourse yet totally informed about that. It's been on the Internet, yet it hasn't even been mentioned on Keith Olbermann or Rachel Meadows. And so the way in which it is being brought to the public, is the way in which it is supposed to be in terms of the proper understanding of something breaking into the status quo called war crimes. And all kinds of war criminals and all kinds of people getting arrested, and I don't know, did you? I heard on Keith Olbermann, but I didn't hear specifically who it was, that there had been some more arrests.

RAMA: I heard that earlier today from Tom the Ring Tailed Cat and he did not tell me who was arrested.

TARA: That there have been more arrests?

RAMA: Yes, there have been arrests. I forgot to mention that.

TARA: Yes. And that was also not in specifics, but it has been said on Keith Olbermann tonight. So we're really very excited. Like the lady watching the starships every night. And believe me, there is a worldwide awareness of this presence being very prolific at this time.

RAMA: And my understanding about this, in spite of the fear stories out there, is there would be a banking holiday, and the banks close and then they reopen. There aren't going to be soldiers in the streets and I'll leave it at that.

TARA: There is not going to be Martial Law then?

RAMA: That's right.

TARA: Although the KOS did reserve it in case of any emergencies. That the White Knights would declare Martial Law as it may, or may not, you know, necessitate that. Although that's only a backup. And remember, the Galactics are in charge of the whole thing. Enough people on the Earth plane right now, beyond a question of a doubt, know that the presence of the Galactics is real.

RAMA: Correct.

MARIETTA: Has anyone heard anything about a preliminary injunction to halt the mandatory flu vaccines? I heard there was a preliminary injunction to halt that. Has anyone heard anymore about it?

RAMA: I have heard only that they have been pushing that story along with the idea that there would be bank closings and soldiers in the streets as we approach the end of August going into September. And I have to just say, all of this is about the GOP in exile who are losing it right, left and center every single day. And it is so sad. I mean, I heard Senator Chuck Rasselley screaming on the radio today.

TARA: And on the TV tonight.

RAMA: And what he is saying is absolute lies. It is not true at all.

TARA: And he's feared for his own life because Sibel Edmonds testified against him last Saturday, after Barack Obama pulled the plug officially on getting the enactment of NESARA and getting 9/11 out there. So that...and that was a 6-hour testimony, and Sibel Edmonds downloaded 6 hours of information to the members of Congress present. And remember the Justice Department did not opt to be present, which sticks out like the biggest sore thumb you could ever imagine as to their guilt around participating in 9/11.

BIGWILL: I need to ask Rama or Tara. You know, recently we are seeing Mr. Dick Armev from Texas all of a sudden, he's back on the scene again. I was just wondering, why is he back?

RAMA: Senator Dick Armev, you are talking about, right Big Will?

BIGWILL: Yes, definitely.

RAMA: He is one of those folks who are running scared. I have to say that.

MI: Hi. I live in Michigan. We just found out that they are looking into the Gitmo refugees for lack of a better word? I was wondering if you heard anything about that?

RAMA: My understanding about the detainees in Gitmo Bay is still....., and yet the story has to go back to the unlawful war on terror which Bush and Chaney orchestrated along with 9/11 to begin with. And at this level, it is not Obama's call, yet it is. And I'll say, he is between what he has to do, and I know that he will come out with flying colors, and it has to do with exposing the war criminals. And on a deeper level, Gitmo Bay represents all of the ugly images of what has occurred on certain levels with different cultures on this planet. Where who we classify "undesirable" to the point where maximum security prisons, like Lex Luther, arch criminals,... why do we need arch criminals, then we need heroes to deal with the arch criminals? Superman. And it isn't about anything except us. It is not about anything except us learning who we are at that level of love. And even these beings who are sitting in Gitmo Bay, they are detainees that are only classified terrorists because of their getting color and their race to use that.....

TARA: Ethnicity.

RAMA: And ethnicity, and....

TARA: And religions.

RAMA: Yes, and like it has been said, they started with the Arabs after 9/11. The next on their agenda would be the Galactics and it ain't happening. It's at that level where the truth is being exposed and they have nothing except their fear and we have love. Love overcomes fear.

MARIETTA: At this time, we're going to ask Mark and the A-Team to come in and give us a report on their activities.

MARK: If I may, listening to 3D news, and listening in your own mind to the things happening. It's very easy to lose the perspective on things that are not quite as visible, but are so powerful that it is, I believe, important that we know what those things are. Since we talked last, last week, there is some absolutely unprecedented events that have transpired and others that are affecting everyone's life. And the first one that is so important to every single person on this call and your families, wherever they are, is to know that on August 8th, the 8th of August, on 8-8-8 Lion's Gate during the daytime, Ashtar personally intervened in all of our lives and gifted each single person with the most precious gift you can be given. And that is the Christed Seed Packet which is a liquid gold drop that is placed just above each and all of our hearts. And the seeds within that Christed Seed Packet, as is called, Golden Christed Seed Packet, it has a series of seeds. And depending on the level of your soul attainment and preparation for ascension, various packages are placed there to give you the optimal opportunity to progress as fast as you are able to. Some people are awake on the planetary level, on the personal level, and some are on the solar level. Some are on the universal level and some are on the cosmic conscious level. And so depending on where they start with at this moment on the 8th of August, is to what is there. All potentials of our present is only a matter of order and sequence of activations that will occur. What are some of the benefits of that? You could not buy, if you had all the gold in the galaxy, you could not buy one of these. So this is what I said, this is the most precious gift you will ever receive seemingly coming from Source, and that's what this is. It will allow you to activate your telepathy. It will allow you to travel in many modes. And of course to continue to raise your consciousness as you open to greater [inaudible - severe interference]. And most people have worked up to now on their personal karma and personal situations. Most of that has now been cleaned out and a lot of people are now working on group projects. They are becoming more and more aware of others, who are an affinity of theirs, who have similar goals in their visioning and in their attainment, and this is becoming very much delightful and that will progress still further as we go into unitary consciousness. In the meantime, there are steps to get us all there together.

Also, another thing that happened in unison to all of this on the 8th of August, there is an item called the Golden Crystal. And that Golden Crystal is located under the left paw of the Sphinx in Giza, and it was under the protection of Serapis Bey for, let's just say, eons of time. He has been there, he has been guarding it and no one else knew it was there. Mother of course did, and Ashtar. But we were contacted by St. Germain, and we were asked a couple of days before that to start taking groups, the Plant Kingdom first, the Devic Kingdom second and the Elemental Kingdom, representatives from each one of their species or expressions. And to take them there, if they were willing to act as a complete representative of their whole line, and to do what is necessary.

What was necessary was that we all had, anyone who approached that Golden Crystal, first of all, had to have the code to go in. Some of us have that code to help others with, and so we were able to enter that Golden Crystal. And when you do, one of the things that will happen is you go through a process inside of there, [inaudible] the heart of the planet. First we took seeds from all the giant trees and every kind of plant on the planet. We took them in bags into that Golden Crystal. That was Beth and myself in particular that St. Germain gave this mission to. Well, in other times, Kauwila and Madame X were there also. And we took them inside the crystal and then up to Gaia's heart. It was like an elevator, and as you ascended, you had to drop any miasms, any distortions in your DNA or in your belief structures. And this had to happen. Everybody agreed to it, so we went on and did that. It was quite awesome the way that happened. When we got to Gaia's heart, everybody turned around and just started feeling very exceptional love, pure love. No other kind. Just pure love. Just freedom from heaviness. People and beings were just weeping in their own way with gratitude that this had happened. Then actually we were taking them all the way back to Source, and we were all demolecularized and reassembled without any of those and returned. Then the next group involved the Devic evolution. And again, for some reason, that was my turn to take them one way and Beth went in another direction with another part of the same group and we met back at the Golden Crystal. And when we got there, we said, wait a minute, this time we have all these beings. How is it possible to get them in the crystal? And suddenly it came to me. Since everything is within anyway, why not ask everyone to merge inside of me so that we could know that everybody was telling the truth and everybody was willing to do exactly what they had said they would in order to represent their particular element. And so then in fact, that's what happened, and we repeated the process that we had done with the other ones. It was just all inside of me now. Everything exactly the same happened. We came back. The next one was the Elemental Kingdom, and we both were involved and it was a very similar item. Then we went through 3 processes, and in those 3 processes all those kingdoms and vicinities were cleared. That brought us up to the 8th, and on the 8th after Ashtar had already gifted us with the Christed Seed Packets, they were activated.

And what happened then was, the crystal had not been attached to the planetary grid. This Golden Crystal turns out to be from Source, and is the means by which everyone here on the planet is reconnected directly to Source permanently. So what had to happen is that we had a joint operation on the night of the 8th during the Real Lion's Gate, as it's called. And Mother - everybody was involved in this, and the Galactics. And we ended up first finding any restrictions or anything in the pathways between the star gates. And then after we identified all of those, we flagged them with different colors. And then that night when we went to bed, we went back and cleared any constrictures, restrictions or blockages. That also had to happen first. Between all the star gates on the planet, and the Galactics helped with that also. Special teams that do this in other locations came in to help. And we went up to the Andromedan Mothership, where the Andromedan counterpart to the A-Team was, and all of us together worked on micro-alignments to get everything into proper position for that Golden Crystal. Then Metatron stepped in when it finally happened. And it did take a long time because they wanted to be absolutely sure, because it is a permanent fixing when that happens. So it was then embedded into the grid of the Earth. It was just like you took your heart out and then put a new one in. You would have to connect all the systems together perfectly so things would function smoothly, and that is indeed what happened. And then it took 3 days for that. Everything takes 72 hours when you embed things on multiple levels before they coordinate and integrate on the physical level.

And I know that we are all here on many levels. Every single person on this call, is not just the person they think they are. This is the smallest part of that which we are, but it is all connected. So it has to ripple from the higher to the lower and then back again to prove that the connections are all there. So now that happened on the 11th. So when we started the 12th off, which was yesterday, we are now in what is called a "lull", and this is because the next phase which is occurring this weekend has 3 places on the planet where a new Lemurian Original Timeline activations are going to happen. Since we have basically erased the old timeline, and we have inserted with this Golden Crystal, a new timeline in which everything and everyone is Source connected have the potential to activate their Christed Seed Packets. That is the biggest single thing connected with ascension that has probably never been talked about. Because it was not known of except by Serapis Bey and Mother, Ashtar and a few others and they never talked about it before this. So now we are in this period where we start, and this is where I would like to ask Kauwila to come in and talk about what is coming up this weekend, what he has discussed with the KOS and what he can share with what's happening this weekend.

KAUWILA: Aloha. I wanted to share with you that we've had some communication from the KOS. And I can say that, I would say, it was the concerning the last operation that we performed on a neighbor island, the one on Oahu back at the end of July. And at that time I picked up a piece of coral, and it was exactly at the point where I was at Kaena Point where the 44 million [original] Lemurians came in. And this piece of coral, I just put it in my pocket and carried it back with me. I didn't look at it at that time, but at some point I realized there is something here telling me where the next operation is going to be. At least for the Hawaiian Islands. Later on, I actually got, I was given, a message that the next operation would be on the island of Kauai. When I looked at this piece of coral, it is kind of covered in some spots with green algae and there are also some red spots on there, red algae. Well, the shape looks like the island of Kauai. And so here we have this piece, and Kauai of course is known as the garden isle. And Kauai is very much a kind of deep paradise isle, if anyone thinks of one as a paradise isle. It also is the older one, one of the older islands. So a lot of the lava has been converted by the oxygen to red dirt, so that kind of brought the red spots into the coral. So at this point, it was pretty clear that the next operation in Hawaii would be on Kauai. And what the King has told us, is that, I'll just read a little bit of this statement here on the 11th.

"For the island of Hawaii, being it's a garden island, but it's a pleasure principal hologram to many. We can say it represents the Eden idea from long, long, long ago. Yea, we say to you, it has returned to this planet. Grided, gilded, grounded."

KAUWILA: And what I'm understanding, this is grounded in the sense of the new original Lemurian Timeline that we have embarked upon. So there is also very clear communication that there are triads involved here. In this particular case, myself, Madame X and one of her group, we lovingly call Lolo, we will be doing a simultaneous operation in those 3 locations. Madame X is in the Rocky Mountains and I don't recall exactly where she will be. But Lolo is actually in Peru and she will actually be at Mattchu Picchu. So the 3 of us will be doing our thing, and the particular point of where we'll be bringing this in is at 8:08am on August 16th. So there's quite a few 8s involved. There is the 8th of August, the 16th which is a 2x8, then there is 808, and also if you add up all the numbers in that particular date, 8+16+2009, it comes out to an 8. So there's lots of 8s flying around. So the other point that came up, kind of unexpectedly, was that the KOS was saying the 3 connection points remaining for the major FINAL connections, are: one is Matchu Pitchu, there is another one, of course in Kauai, the portal point which was also where the Harmonic Convergence was and in some ways came in. And the other place, which I didn't get to until later in the paragraph, is at New Orleans. And they say the celebration point at New Orleans is viewed as Moors connections, connection to even Siamese Cat region. In other words, Thailand. Mother loves the Thai food, you know. The Magdalene essence of France. So it's a lot of connections here to the feminine vibrations. So we will be..... I will be flying out tomorrow and I will arrive at 1:07 pm, the scheduled arrival on Kauai. The guidance from the King and from other sources is that I'm to be there for, we'll confirm the operation on 8/16 at 8:08 am which is Sunday, and I'm to be there for exactly three 24-hours or a 72-hour period. And the specified time is to be as close as you can to the 72-hour period, as desired, so that will be carried out. Let's see. And this one part here I wanted to read, is this is like the major final piece. Oh, here we go. I'll read this one paragraph from the King's message on the 11th.

"As before in the last thousand years' ago message, yesterday. We call this time on triad KLM" [which means Kauwila, Lolo and Madame X] "for prime airing performing. Each already knows their assign. Each already knows actions, thoughts, intentions, guidance, followings to carry through. We see this has already completed with perfection. All others" [that means everyone in this group] "requested to hold and be in the pink platinum grid space of this OLTL" [the Original Lemurian Time Line] ". "What pleasure in the highest sense will all experience because this is the final connecting action required."

KAUWILA: And to me, that was a very key point, that this is a final connecting action. So there's quite a bit that is happening. There are a lot of things that you know will be shown as we go through this operation, but we're so grateful for all of you to be joining us in this operation, in however way your intuition and your guidance guides you to join. So I think that's about it for that particular communication. Mark or Beth, do you have anything to add at this time?

MARK: Beth, do you want to come on at this point and maybe add a little bit for the people who can't see or haven't been on the ops, might want to know what goes on? On some of the more visual aspects of these operations?

BETH: Well, one thing I can say is that we've been noticing a lot more ships are present. We're receiving messages that there are ships here carrying beings that haven't been here for a long time, and they have come from much further out than we could even imagine. And we've been visiting these ships at night time during our night work. I'm coming back with memories of seeing these very large motherships and large groups of people, and they are impressing upon me to bring back and to say and to let everyone know that they are here now. And they are all aware of these changes that we are going through, and the work that's being done regarding these shifts, and things that we'll be keying into over the weekend in these 3 different parts of the world. And getting all these activations completed with the new energies, so I guess that's what I wanted to share. I got a smile when the lady was saying I'm noticing more ships, and I was saying, yes, absolutely right. Many, many more than before are here.

MARK: And one of the things they've been telling us, is that they are here in the formats that they are now, to reintegrate with us. You've always heard that we are all ONE, and for a very, very, long time we have operated at different branches of the same hand or family. They are now, as a matter of fact, the night of the 8th, after we finished the activation of the Golden Crystal, the Andomedan mothership that we were on then took us through the galaxy, through more galaxies, and ended up at Andromeda itself on the mothership. And then the reintegration ceremony took place there, and then they came back, and so these branches of the family have now been reintegrated, and they also further stated, now that they are here, they are fully ready for formal contact.

BETH: That's great!

MARK: In that regard, there was a incident yesterday in Strasburg, PA, and this was pictures were taken by the homeowner outside their own house. So this is the first party, not only got documentation with their own home and car in the picture. So you have relative sizes and they took two pictures. Richard [Boylan] broke his long standing rules and posted them. They are very good pictures. They are the best I've seen in a very long time and some of the best ever and the closest up as well. And these are of Zeta craft. Very low and very beautifully detailed, and I'm only telling you this because this is being reported in more and more areas. And this is in preparation for decloaking of large numbers of ships as part of this final event series, the arrests, and our announcement. This process will all happen together with the arrests which have to come. They said they are now fully ready for formal contact and landing. In addition to that, Beth you might want to comment on what they said about twin flames now.

BETH: It is not coming to my mind what part you mean.

MARK: Okay, what I was talking about is that, as you know, the new Original Lemurian Timeline required divine male first and then divine female. To enter and to merge, so that now everyone of us that is part of this new timeline has a fully rebalanced male/female template, because this was done all the way back to Source. And also grounded in the planetary diamond form. So now with the balanced male and female in everything, the whole planet, Gaia and Vywamus in particular, are able to be together. As it said, as above, so below. So now in this last few days, they have told us that with this weekend's implementation, the finishing of these 3 point activations that are occurring, you will be able, those who desire it, will be able to physically meet your twin flame. If you are presently in a positive relationship, they will simply work through your existing 3D individual. In other words, they will support you in ways of higher access than you ever had before. So it is whatever is most appropriate in each case, is possible. They can always work from the inner and they can always work from the higher dimensions. But they will be increasingly be available for actual physical coming together, and in fact we know several cases that these are looking forward to ones in the next few weeks in a few different locations. That are those representatives in bodies. Some have walked in, some of them have been here, but they have been cloaked until now because it wasn't time. All these things now, they are saying, it's time. This can happen. We are now in 5D. No, we are not fully ascended, but we are in 5th dimension, the early stages of it. Some people are in various stages of that. 5.5 is the mid-point of any dimensional shift where it's [inaudible] becomes permanent. A few people are there and more will happen every day now. So this is the exciting stuff that we've been waiting for. You see it all across the Internet. People are talking about ascension, they are talking about NESARA, and they are talking about all the good things that can come.

"Spiritually speaking," it doesn't get better than this. This is our own divine heritage coming to a point with that which we are. And that will boost us forward to whole planet ascension faster than anything, and that's why it's now approved to happen. So be aware that this is possible.

KAUWILA: I want to just mention one thing. We've got many communications from a variety of sources. There is also on the GRT group, a message from Pele to Hawaii businesses and owners and operators, but it also applies to any business in the world. I also posted a link to the audio. The reason I took the talking stick at this time, is I was informed by the King that he would have a short message for all of you, and with your indulgence, I would like to just share that message with you. This has not been written down and is being recorded right now, so this is the first time it is being heard. So we thank you KOS in coming to speak with us today. What do you have to say for all of us?

KOS: Well, my dear ones. What an adventure! What an adventure you have, shall we say, embarked upon, but shall we also say, you also know the results, you know the ending. Isn't that fantastic? We love you all so much. We love you all for all you are doing, all you are releasing, all of the different kinds of trains that you are riding on. Yes, we hear the train. We love the trains and we also love the way you are flying to your new destinations. These destinations have been predetermined, and it is determined that you are at that destination now. This coming weekend is a time for all of us to be in that space of loving, joyful, creative pleasure. Whatever you love to do, whatever you love, allow that into your life this weekend. Wherever you are at 8:08 am on the 16th of August, be in that place of joy. This is the final piece. This is the final time. This is the final time before there is no more time. We speak to you sometimes in riddles. We speak to you sometimes in unusual speak. Sometimes we speak this way so that you can relax your mind and say aaahhh. When I sink into that feeling, I know what it means. I do know what it means. We speak on many levels now. It's not just to the 3D, 4D, 5D, 6D. We speak on many, many dimensional levels. One more time I wish to say, we wish to say, because this is more than one, we wish to say to you "thank you for being with us, thank you for working with all of us, because we are all family. We are all finding our homes. We are all finding our new homes. We are all finding that our old homes are our new homes. We thank you, we thank you, we thank you and we thank you for being here with us. And we also thank you Mother the cat whom we love so dearly. Thank you so much, and we look forward to hearing her message. Aloha and lahouieho until we meet again. Thank you."

MARK: Thank you Kauwila. That was a wonderful message from the King and it was the icing on the cake. And I will have to say, the whole time you were talking, I was looking straight out my window ahead and there was a big Paschat mothership staring right at me. The whole time. So yes, we are being observed.

KAUWILA: What a treat!

MARK: Thank you all for allowing us to be here and share this tonight. This is not an ordinary weekend. I hope you got that from what the King said. So take that inside and act accordingly.

MOTHER SEKHMET TELECALL 8/13/09 - Part 2

Q&As

CALLER: I have a question about what Mark was saying that we can be meeting our twin flames now. And I remembered before he was saying, most of our twin flames were probably on the ships. So I am wondering how we would be meeting our twin flames. Will they be on the ships or what?

BETH: Many of us have our twin flames that have been working with us in other dimensions as we've been incarnated in bodies on Earth. Many, many of those of our family who are listening to this call, many of those are working on the ships and they are supporting you. Your twin flame is supporting you in your every day life and you may or may not be aware of it. One thing you can do is attempt to have telepathic communication with your twin flame. And an easy way to do that is upon rising, in bed, in the morning. Before you get out of bed, center yourself and your heart, lower your breathing, become focused and start to draw in this love energy that you know would be coming from your twin flame. And by doing this every single day, practicing over and over, eventually you should be able to have a deeper connection with your twin flame. That is one technique to use. As far as meeting them in the physical, we are getting reports from different adepts that live in different parts of the world and they are all coming back with the same messages now. That all of these energy changes, and this Golden Crystal being locked into the grid, and we've been changing in the world, are making it possible for the changes that we've been waiting for, for a long time. And when that happens, when we have mass landings, and our twin flames are coming off of the ships, then they will start joining with us. And a lot of people imagine it as, you know, oh, your twin flame knows where you live, they have been monitoring you and they will show up and knock on your door. That is not exactly how it will happen. But it looks like the way it is developing, that the possibility..... See, we had to raise into a certain vibration before it was possible for us to be with our twin flames again, and we have accomplished that now. So I guess that's what we are talking about mainly. That this is opening up more and more. It's going hand in hand with First Contact. Does that answer your question?

CALLER: Okay, so yes. What I wondered was, sounds like we have to wait for First Contact though. They are on the ships.

BETH: Well, what I've been hearing and what I understand, is some of them are coming now as walk-ins and that you may just meet someone in your life, and you know you have an instant connection to them. I've heard that this has been happening now. Those that are prepared, their twin flames, some of them are taking bodies now. I don't mean they are coming in through as walk-ins. They are taking physical form. And that would be, you know, a prearranged agreement on a spiritual level. But, I'm hearing that it is happening now. It has begun. That certainly won't be everybody's case, but it is one of the ways it can happen.

MARIETTA: Dyanna, Rama and Tara went to a retreat and Dyanna wants to share something about that.

DYANNA: Dear ones, I have something special to share with you. This past weekend, Tara and Rama, and I and my dear companion Rene traveled to the Pocono Mountains to sit for 3 days with the most wonderful Avatar. It was the most exquisitely beautiful experience and we wanted to share just a little bit of that with you. Tara asked me if I would share tonight and I have written something up. And I have actually sent it to you, Kauwila, and I have also sent it to you, Mark Huber, in the hopes that you might be able to post what I have written along with a picture of Svami Purna. And what I have written up is on the website so that more people will get a chance to actually read it.

So first of all, before I start, I would like to say that the location of this event was at the highest most point in the Pocono Mountains, about 3,000 feet. It was at a place that has long been a spiritual retreat, a place where people have gathered. In fact, this place was built by the Quakers. They purchased the land in 1900 and it consisted of 3,500 acres which is now a wild game preserve. All the animals there are protected. There is no hunting allowed on this land. This land is up in the mountains, it's covered with trees, and the hotel sits kind of at the highest point, and it was built in 1901. And the Quakers would gather there every summer together. This was their gathering point for the whole country. They would come together in these mountains and they would pray for peace on Earth. So it is not by chance that this place was chosen for this gathering with Svami Purna. It was also not by chance that.... This is also the land that originally belonged to Pocahontas. This is the tribe that lived in those mountains, so there was a lot of history surrounding us as we came to this beautiful place. It had many, many trails, walking trails through the trees. It had horseback riding and swimming pools. And many things of course, we didn't have time to do all that. We met in a beautiful room high up in the trees. It was a ballroom. And the room faced the west and it was surrounded on 3 sides by trees, and the windows were open, and it was the most beautiful setting. Lovely, lovely space for us to meet this Svami. So now, I would like to read to you what I have written.

THE LOTUS FEET OF HIS HOLINESS SRI SRI SRI SVAMI PURNA MAHARAJ

"OM PURNAMADAH PURNAMIDAM

PURNAT PURNAMUDACHYATE

PURNAMEVAVASHISYATE "

"This is whole: That is whole: Taking away whole from whole, whole still remains whole."

A few Thoughts on Divine Grace...

How can I put into words the feelings, love, insight and compassion and rarity of this Beloved Being, Sri Sri Sri Svami Purna? He came so softly, with lightness of foot, a gentle radiant smiling face, a pure intelligence and bubbles of laughter that sprinkled his speech throughout the hours. As we who sat with him for 3 days, we were indeed graced by the Divine, something like being plugged into a million watt socket outlet of pure love allowing one's heart to swell, and be swept away by currents of Divine Grace. Yet, the experience itself was ever so gentle and sweet, permeating every cell and nook and cranny of consciousness, like taking a slow deep drink of the nectar of a pure heart. One of his websites says: "He is one of the greatest masters ever to walk the earth" and this may be an understatement! His websites: www.the-banyan-tree.net, also www.swavmipurna.org do little to tell his real story.

I believe he holds the Office of Maha Guru Maharaj, and is the One known as THE CHIEF GURU of all the Gurus of all the ages. I immediately noticed his ancient shoes---carved out of the wood of a Banyan Tree. I believe the shoes represent the Office he carries and holds as he walks upon earth. I kept feeling he was ancient---perhaps he has been on the earth for thousands, even millions of years. Could this be the man Jeshuva, Lord Sananda himself, went in search of during his years walking through India and the Himalayas? I also kept having the feeling I had seen him a thousand times, in a million lifetimes, in billions of dreams. In my mind's eye I saw him walking naked through the forest, year after year, from the Himalayas to the Ganges, bringing the Rod of Shiva down from the Himalayas, keeping the energy sacred for the planet's purity, leading all the other holy men into the sacred ritual bathing of purification in the Ganges, or leading the pack in kicking off the traditional yearly celebrations of Wesak, and Maha Guru Purnima Day and so forth.

He felt so familiar---- like someone you have known all your life, but waited so long to finally meet and here you are at last sitting together for an afternoon chat and getting to celebrate Maha Guru Purnima Day with the one you have really waited for lifetimes! Astonishing!

Many years ago in the early 70's I was gifted with a spiritual reading from a being simply known as `Scottie' whom I met in Phoenix, Arizona. This being gave me my entire life story and spiritual journey on the path, in a few hours time. He told me how I would become a Buddhist first, and would study that for 7 years, and then I'd go to the East to study there for another 7 years. But he then told me the 'REAL TEACHER', the one I had waited for, would not come until later in life—and he would come to America to find me! Very Interesting!

We arrived late to the event, being delayed by our flight and other travel difficulties, but we got to first greet him as he exited the meditation hall for tea break after the first afternoon's session. He came walking down the stairs-- walking slowly and deliberately in those amazing shoes---"clomp, clomp, clomp"--- on a carpet of pure white lovingly sprinkled with rose pedals. He saw us standing there to the left as he came out the door and greeted each one of us with a NAMASTE, looking directly into each of our eyes---Rama, Mother Sekhmet first, then Tara and finally myself, Dyanna. As he did this, I instantly knew he knew we had come a long, long ways, overcoming many challenges, to greet him. I also knew he read our entire life records in an instant, without judgment, just like Beloved Mother Sekhmet does whenever she enters a room. In that moment he knew exactly why we had come and `who' we were.

During the daily sessions, the jewels of wisdom he gave us were immense. We laughed. We cried. We laughed again at ourselves and the hilarity of our predicament having forgotten `who we are' for lifetimes on the path. Again and again he reminded us of the importance of loving ourselves, of honoring all life and of embodying the teachings of truth. We could only absorb so much being in a state of heightened love for so long. Luckily, the entire event was professionally taped and everyone will receive DVDs or CDs of each session as well as photos of the spectacular closing ritual which Svami Purna himself decided to do after observing us and sitting with us for 3 days. To say we were blessed by this gesture or uplifted or encouraged by his words, his smiling eyes which penetrated our soul, is truly an understatement.

I can only imagine what this might be like in light of sitting at the feet of Beloved Mother Sekhmet when she can fully disrobe in her true Light Form of The Light of Alcyone—the Great Central Sun.

The highlight of the weekend was the final day's traditional Maha Guru Purnima ritual or the washing of the Master or teacher's feet, the offering of the rice or nourishment to the Gods, and the offering of the heart to Divine Grace with rose pedals and vows of renewal to follow the Light---- the renewal of one's commitment to embody the enlightened teachings of truth.

Here is the Svami's own words taken from one of his websites: a talk on the occasion of Guru Purnima by Svami Purna:

Many spiritual masters – such as Buddha - have chosen the full moon as the time for annual celebration, rather than celebrating their physical birthdays. Many prefer Guru Purnima – the day of the Guru (spiritual teacher, master or guide) falling on the full moon of July/August. This is the day designated for those who are committed to the teachings (often called "disciples/students ") to demonstrate and renew their commitment and love toward their Guru and to follow the spiritual path. It is also a day for the Guru to assess the development of the disciples and the disciples to submit their commitment, as well as to evaluate how far they have come - and more importantly, how much further they have to go - as they integrate the spiritual path, awareness and practice into their lives as a whole. Key to this reflection and assessment is the concept of responsibility for self and a holistic approach to life, applying the spiritual teaching to everyday life and becoming self-sufficient while assisting fellow travelers on the path.

When teaching is imparted and knowledge is given, one is supposed to apply these principles and lessons in life. You can liken it to a given key that you are supposed to use wisely, opening the right door, not a wrong one. It is also your responsibility to use the knowledge you have been given the right way. This too requires contemplation and periodic reflection; Guru Purnima provides such an opportunity to reflect and to make positive changes in one's life.

Many people want to escape reality. This is not a solution. Rather, face the reality of your own truth. It is only by facing your truth that you can face your fear or phobia. When you actually confront your fear, your reality, you will discover that there was nothing to fear to begin with. You have built up conditioning about something you did not know and created your own phobias.

Every day in your life you make a decision. Having been given spiritual knowledge, you are more able and equipped to make the right decision, a balanced decision in the sense of what brings true fulfillment to your life.

Then what is the role of the Guru? This has been explained in many spiritual texts. The Guru is the remover of darkness and ignorance, leading you from untruth to truth, from darkness into light and from death to immortality (Asadoma Satagamaya...) and toward enlightenment. The Guru gives you the key to open the right door and to make the right decisions. You should reflect upon how far your understanding has developed as a result of such experience, and enjoy Guru Purnima in the spirit of positive growth and progress on the path.

Description of the Ritual Blessings of Maha Guru Purnima with Sri Svami Purna:

The teacher sits on the cushions with his Lotus Feet hanging over the edge of a large bowl. One at a time we are called to stand before the Svami Purna to make our vows. We carry the basket of items we wish to be blessed. The basket is taken from our hands and placed on Svami's lap which he then blesses. First we bow and NAMASTE each other--- recognizing the Light of God within. Then, we kneel on the padded step bowing to the Divine and with the right hand [the male side] we sprinkle water over the feet of the Buddha---the ritual washing of the dust off his feet. Then we offer the rice to his feet, the food of the Gods---or nourishment which we in turn wish to receive in exchange.

Next we offer our Heart, which is truly the only thing we can ever offer the Gods, by sprinkling red rose pedals over his feet.

And finally—using our right hand again and the ring [love] finger, we dip into the red sandalwood paste and touch the Buddha's feet [the knuckle of the right toe], and then we bring the paste to our third eye receiving 'Shakti' or 'The awakening Light' to our full consciousness.

Lastly, Svami Purna blesses a ripe apple which he offers us, to be eaten immediately as food from the Gods. And as parting gift to take home with us and as a silent reminder, a red string is tied around our wrist help us 'stay wake no matter what' and 'remember WHO WE REALLY ARE'!

As this ritual proceeded, I do not think there was one dry eye in the entire group. There were grown men, large and small, and women of every age sobbing in the crowd, with tears rolling down their faces as each one went before and made their vows. And the most amazing site to me was Beloved Mother Sekhmet [in Rama's body] going before Svami Purna and bowing and doing the ritual kneeling, washing, sprinkling etc. When Svami Purna received Rama's basket to be blessed, it contained two very large crystals---- Helios and Vesta. He picked them up and then closed his eyes and felt their energy. He smiled, and then he looked very deeply into His/HER face. I instantly knew he knew the Goddess Mother Herself----- SHE WHO WAS HERE BEFORE THE GODS WERE had come to his feet along with all the rest to renew her holy vows as this New Satyuga, Age of Enlightenment begins.

TOTALLY AMAZING!!!!!! !

I also remember vividly Svami Purna's very last words to us as the ritual ended. He told us and I am paraphrasing:

I will never leave you. I will always be with you no matter what. You can find me. I am here. All you have to do is close your eyes the think of me and you will see me. I am there----you will see my face! We shall meet again in person. For sure---we shall meet again.

There is a RAINBOW BRIDGE. It exists---it is real! I will be waiting for you ON THE RAINBOW BRIDGE!!

As he said this, he smiled at everyone, and then he looked directly at Rama [Mother Sekhmet] and Tara----
"I SHALL MEET YOU ON THE BRIDGE!"

SVAMI PURNA MAHARAJ KNOWS EXACTLY WHAT IS GOING ON!

This note, written by Lady Master Morningstar, was included on a card passed to Svami Purna along with the Pink Platinum Pyramid, our offering to the Buddha on this Maha Guru Purnima Day of August 9th, 2009.

It reads:

Beloved Svami Purna,

On behalf of tens of thousands of Lightworkers, Starseeds, Galactic Humans and Faction 3 Military worldwide, we make this offering of a 'Pink Platinum Pyramid' representing our Love and our Hearts brought to you on the Guru Purnima Day. This gift represents the work we have been doing for many years working together with our Brothers and Sisters of the Star Nations and our the Inner Earth family, to bring about the full Enactment of N.E.S.A.R.A so that the Golden Age Satyuga of Light may truly come forth.

We wish to thank you for coming so that we can make this offering 'of our hearts' so that Peace may come to Earth at last.

We love you so much. NAMASTE

Lady Master Morning Star

Beloved Mother Sekhmet/Lord Alcyone and The Ashtar Command

Dyanna Amrito and Renee Suriya

Tara Avantari, Rama Arjuna

Mark Huber, Beth, Terrence

And the entire A-Team et al.

As the mantle of power of Lady Master Morningstar/ Lord Michael is placed upon my shoulders, I feel the importance of the moment descent upon me. It is no mistake that I am the first person called to stand before Svami Purna to make my vows. I know what I must do for I understand that I carry with me the hopes, wishes, dreams and desires of the future evolution of happiness and love on behalf of the Children of Earth.

Gentle hands come and lift me from my seat. I have been sitting so long my legs hardly function.... Suddenly there I am standing before HIM.

And so, In the Office of The Christ and only In the Office of The Christ, I offer my heart to Sri Sri Sri Svami Purna.

I lay my rose quartz beads OF MY HEART before him.

"Beloved Svami Purna---these beads represent The Song of My Heart which I lay at your feet."

He looks deeply into my eyes and he sees EVERYTHING in my heart.

He smiles and I can feel love pouring into every cell.

The tears of joy well up inside and began to spill down my face.

My hands are shaking. I bow and offer the cleansing water, the rice, the flowers and then the sandalwood paste.

I receive a jolt of Joy of Light within as I touch my Third Eye with the paste.

Lastly, My vow to the Light is given.

I take the lit candle surrounded by rose pedals and make a large circle in the air before him clockwise 3 times.

"In the Name of the Children of Light of this planet Earth---we take this vow:

We shall honor the Light within and without from this day forward forever more!

We shall honor the Light within and without from this day forward forever more!

We shall honor the Light within and without from this day forward forever more!"

It is done.

THE GOLDEN AGE OF ENLIGHTMENT HAS BEGUN!

And so it is. So Be It!

This was written in deepest love and gratitude: Namaste

[Invocation of Mother Sekhmet]

TARA: And we ask at this time for the heavenly host and for this Avataric agent of happiness to touch the hearts of everyone here, and to renew the spirit for which we all came together. And that this community of love that we have built together can spread throughout the hearts of all minds and all spirits of all life within this realm and beyond. And I know it is true, Mother, that our mission has been accomplished. Let us not forget to walk our talk, and continue to remember that we now are living in our light bodies in "no time" and "NESARA yes".

MS: Greetings, wondrous beings of love and light, peace and joy. Indeed, living in these light bodies as well as the frequencies pouring in transforming. It is a wondrous dance to behold, such incredible grace, love, blessing your planet at this time. Both so many factors of your local universe, and we can say, what you all have experienced in the sense of stepping into that room with the energies of the grace light if you will, coming in with this one which Lady Master Morningstar spoke of so eloquently. We have to say that hanging out with self is quite a feat 'cause wherever you are, there you are. It is about that thing, the whole is nothing. In the sense nothing from nothing is nothing.

TARA: Well, exactly what he was saying, is you can take away the whole and it's still there. In other words, it's impossible to remove the whole.

MS: Yes, and we will just say, Number one, what are all the folks in this country speaking about? The whole of the health of this Temple of the Living God that we are speaking through. Nobody going to take you out, put you in the camp, kill you. It is about health and healing the whole and this Temple in the sense, already whole and as you visualize that, making it so. In the reality where [inaudible] that you got already going on. And the shades are being pulled up, and like Swami G said, time to wake up because now is the time for peace. As that is declared, we get to really come and share, and you get to share as well, which is in that sense, you really get to step into our shoes. See what it's like. Al Bundy ain't going to be filling your feet with those shoes. These shoes of grace. It is about the love that is coming forth now on this planet. So much in the sense, yes, there are still energies that are, you could say, those shadows and shades that are a bit gray here and there are quickly being cleaned up and removed as it were. In the sense that all of the kingdoms are rejoicing. We took a little walk last night down next to the river by the house here. All the angels, fairies, devas, by the river. Fireflies thanking us. "Thank you so much for what you all are doing to raise this life of love on this planet to bring peace." They are popping out, gleaming, dancing for joy over the town of the city. And we will just say, the angels and the fairies may be louder than the noise of the traffic. In the sense, when you get real quiet in that place, it is that joyous sound of that incredible magic unfolding here. And we can say, well on the path to receiving that which has been spoken of. The grace of peace on this planet. We would love to thank Naomi and Mark, Hazelwood for allowing us the grace to show up there. We thank you for this. No words. Only now is the time for peace of what is unfolding. In the sense of as what we experience now like he said, you carry it forth, share it with the circles upon circles upon circles that you would interact with. One of us. Took it right onto Montel across America.

TARA: The very next morning.

MS: Yes. Talking about success and creating the atmosphere within your life, you create that success by calling upon the peace and divinity within you. Even in the sense of bailouts, bust, bank failings. The Bank of the Universe never fails. It is about (an incident) wealth that is your birthright which is who you are. These Kings and Queens that represent the Creator God. And that is who we are all rubbing elbows with. Better get used to it because it ain't going to stop. Only going to get more. And we will just say, you might just turn around and the Admiral and the Captain will be winking at you. And no jokes, no accidents. It is [3 taps] right here. We have what we will say, the being in here forgot to say this earlier along with the A-Team report. Three days now, we have been seeing pink platinum pyramids, a huge one over South Pole, another one over North Pole. The Golden Crystal is working with this energy. And what is occurring is in spite of the streams of clouds that make up that little bit of gray we are talking about. In the sense, where there are still many choosing to step into the fray. It's only for a moment that they have decided to be here whatever their karma/darma may be. It is not up to us to judge or whatever to say about it. Whether it is in Iraq or Afghanistan, Darfore or Sudan or over the Congo. We are just saying what is occurring on many levels on this planet is the fact that we are ONE. ONE group of light called humanity. We must remember our divinity on all levels. Then we can interact with each other with grace and dignity. With beauty. To be able to talk to each other without any kind of undertones that have to do with ethnicity. Funny word we have to use in order to describe different groups, 'cause humanity is ONE. It matters not whether you are from Percyion or from the petri dish. We are all ONE creation of incredible love and dignity, beauty. It is time we start acting in that manner, and the fact is whether you see the changes or not, begin to see them in [inaudible], and if you are not seeing them, what are you not doing to shift your reality in that sense? Whether it is judgment or whatever going on, better deal with it [3 taps] right now because the energy is at a point where if you don't deal with it, it will hit you in the face. It is about that energy that you have to come clean with on all levels. Everything getting exposed and no jokes, no accidents. Each time there is a story being put out there about the fact that we are moving forward into the energies of grace, beauty, love, there are more other stories popping up about be very afraid, that granny is going to be put out to pasture around 6 feet under. Like the Sirian Commander, not true on any level. If anything, what you need in this country is the understanding where you can walk into a health care professional and it would be of the equivalent of Dr. Krusher or Dr. McCoy. We are taking it to that level with the free technologies that are being distributed now. Where people do not have to get sick, do not have to die, do not have to grow old and the science is already in your midst. It is called the science of prana yama first and foremost. Learning how to control your breath, Yoga and breathing, and that energy will heal any other kind of stuff going on in your body. When you learn how to work with that prana breath energy, you can create the harmony in your mind, spirit, to heal whatever traumas that may be going on, in the terms of the everyday realities. That's why it is imperative to meditate morning/evening. And to hold that energy in sacred balance on all levels. It maintains the equilibrium of peace on this planet and that is what is coming forth. In spite of the fact they are still trying to stir the pot to create more stories about Darth Vader and the village idiot who supposedly got too [inaudible]. It is all stories that have to be put into the fire of purification. The pudja. And as that is burned up into the manifestation of pure living light, living love, nothing remains except that which is called the monatomic gold. [inaudible] or whatever it is called. Gold dust. [inaudible] As we have been saying for 3 days, we see these pink platinum pyramids. One North Pole, one South Pole. Entirely being showered with gold dust.

TARA: Liquid Gold.

MS: Yes. This is the energy of divine grace, love, coming in now. This is why we are on a one-way course back to heart Source.

TARA: And that pink platinum combination is on the 12th ray which is also the 12th strand of DNA which is the strand of DNA of the heart of which all the dark ones erased from their own coding.

MS: Yes. And all they got to do is ask for it back in divine love and it is there. It is up to them. Love them more in their ignorance. It is not bliss. We will just say, it is that place in which we have the divine understanding that they know their choices. To create the opportunity of the ascension of all living beings at this time of moving from Kaliyuga?? to Satyuga. It is that understanding All dancing that ecstatic dance of where the joy is there.

TARA: Well, Mother, I was just going to say, when this moment encroaches to its final accountable moment, many who have been struggling with their doubts and their fears, it gets exuberating, right, Mother?

MS: Yes, it is 11/11 right now.

TARA: In the Eastern time zone, very interesting. As above, so below. Everybody, let us embrace those who are experiencing doubt and projecting it as if it is outside of them, and know it is merely a veneer. It is a veil that appears to still be in front and behind, above and below and around. It is simple as surrender, and I guess surrender is probably for those who have yet to fully do the surrender dance. I am the Lord of the Dance said HE, and give it over to higher love. For all of us, this is our final journey. And be respectful to those needing a little distance right now. Again, that's okay because it is always through the exasperation of the extremes that it becomes obvious. The center.

MS: Yes.

TARA: Yes. So we just love people more who are taking their self to the extreme of their doubts or fear and projecting outward. Oh yes, Mother is just indicating that it would be good if we could get some help. There is, we need to progress with a little gas money. We also, in the next little while, we'll be able to resume doing some of finishing up of readings that haven't been finished. I hope that this will also begin to happen for a lot of the folks that have been on hold. Not just here yet, with all the Lightworkers, because there has been a major expansion of the dispensation of higher love that's been coming in, and it has required all of us to put our full attention to the collective absorption of this love. So the individual readings will be able to commence again and resume in the next little while. Right, Mother?

MS: Yes indeed.

TARA: In the meantime, if you would be so kind, everyone. And we are not home obviously. You can email us at koran999@... and then we can get in touch with you. And we can find a way to communicate to get the gas money going here. So thank you very, very much everybody for that.

MARIETTA: And I have a question that was sent in Mother. The recent passing of Eunice Kennedy Shriver. Could you comment on that? Was it really a passing away or was it something other than that?

MS: We would just say that President Kennedy's sister was a great being and we heard many incredible stories about her whole incredible life. During her lifetime, doing many wondrous things in spite of the shadow that was cast on that side of the Rothschild family, we would just say, in spite of the seemingly dark energy, there were great lights working with this frequency. Great love. And it is about the fact that we do not know. She was not taken out. It was time for her to go, yet her body was not working within normal perimeters. We would just say, we do not see that the Black Ops gave her any form of illness. It was in the sense, as the energies increase in magnitude, that which is still stuck in that energy of 3D going to have to speed up exponentially. It's almost when you step into being, you are raised to the level of Sun, and if you cannot in the sense expand with the orgasms, you go [popping sound] and you disappear. It is not a negative thing, it is a joyous thing. At the same time, we would dispel any thoughts of negativity or fear. It is about the incredible love that is pouring forth from Creator Source. Not to go on tangent, Marietta Robert; Miss Eunice Kennedy was not taken out by dark side.

Q&As

CALLER: I read an article where President Obama is going to be in Boseman MT, and that he and Michelle are going to be staying in the area overnight. And that's to be on Friday, and with this being such a critical weekend and that being so close to the Tetons, is that not where is Ashtar's retreat area? I am wondering if there is any significance to that?

MS: St. Germain has a retreat in the Grand Tetons.

TARA: Yet, those in Montana are a little bit different. Isn't that more connected with Yellowstone? Although that is still a bit of a ways from Boseman.

MS: A hop, skip and jump. And we will just say that maybe the Sirian Commander is going to get a boost by sitting in St. Germain's ascension chair.

TARA: Yes, and that is a very powerful energy vortex in Boseman, and it's a university town too. And there is a lot of new good energy in that town. Especially from Montana. There is another section of Montana that's really beautiful, a river valley, what's that called again? Begins with M. It's over there north central and to the western part. Anyway, there is a beautiful river valley there and there are a lot of Lightworkers there too. Boseman is like between that Yellowstone and then that other side of Montana, and also, isn't there also a Table Mountain. Where is Table Mountain, Mother?

MS: Nearby.

TARA: Right around in there? Underneath Montana, right

MS: We cannot recall on the map. Would have to take a moment to look. Yes, in the vicinity.

TARA: I'm it's Montana. You want to tell them about Table Mountain?

MS: It is one of the vortexes along the path of the tunnels that go across your planet here. That the folks with incredible love and light use.

TARA: And that Table Mountain, underground Ashtar Command Base there, is connected to the inner Taos Mountain underground Ashtar Command Base. As a matter of fact, Rama went on a land speeder from inside Taos Mountain where the landing bay was, all the way to Table Mountain. Not too far where Boseman is - underneath there. Yeah. Also, this is just a note, but remember on April 22 of 1999, Ashtar hurled, with 2 sun cruisers, he hurled 2 balls of light the size of Venus each into the physical sun Sol to transmute the energies of the hydrogen-based molecule to a helium-based molecule, which takes it from, you might say, a very fiery and searing-type of heat energy that burns, to a gentle braising light of a much higher vibration coming from the sun. And that is really something to transform our understanding to that. As we see the world as part of us. In other words, as we are the center, we are the universe and that we contain everything in the universe.

MS: We are the change we wish to see.

TARA: We are the change we wish to see. We are the changer and the change.

MS: Yes.

ROBIN: When can we have the healing modalities and ways that Beth has mentioned that will be available to us to help our brothers and sisters?

MS: It is already occurring at this time. And [it will increase] as you work with the frequencies by uplifting self in a daily meditation working with the spirit doctors and the angels. Your third eye is opening up right now. Take the time to sit and meditate with that and you will begin to see us.

TARA: Actually the science, all the technologies in science, we are the technology.

MS: Yes.

TARA: And our bodies are taking on their electronic light form which is the 5th dimensional light body form. We become that science. We are the ones that actually implement the science through the body. As the body is a bio-transducer of higher light bringing it right through us and anchoring into the heart of Mother Earth.

MS: That is why it is so imperative that we focus on mantras, peace and joy. That sound frequency goes out across time and space and changes matter into a place of grace.

FL: I live in [inaudible] Florida and the first time ever, about 5 miles away, this guy had an encounter with an alien. It was outside, like of the monsters. It was amazing; it was right down the road from me. Anyway, I went down to investigate. He is saying it will be coming back. The only thing about it is, is that what he is seeing, he said it is about 10-15 feet tall. He said it looks like a gray alien and it's got one red eye in the middle of its head. And he got a picture and a cast of one of its feet. It had a hoof with 3 toes. I was just wondering which kind of human that is, or non human?

MS: We would say that this is a, not so much human as artificial intelligence, maybe living android.

TARA: Yeah. Well, it could be having that cyclopean form which is a single eye. Although you said it was a red eye; good heavens, that is kind of interesting.

MS: Yes, we would just say, there are many organic life forms mixed with technology to serve, in the sense, they are the living eyes, ears of technologies that can do and perform many functions for First Contact, exploration, as well as observation.

TARA: It also might be, you've got to check if there is any noise. In other words, the ship the alien came from. If it's making noise, then we've got to question the energy, and you've got to feel the energy with your higher sense of perception.

MS: Got to touch your heart in the sense of incredible joy. We would wonder about the energy of it.

TARA: And you've got to be super sensitive to those things right now. You know, we're not getting, you know, involved in phenomena just for phenomena sake.

MS: Yes.

JAMES: This is James of Boston. I was watching Terry Cassidy from Project Camelot doing an interview with Steven Greer. To my dismay, she spoken about a food shortage within 4 months. Can you clarify on this?

MS: We would say that this has to do with the fact there are still issues going on out there with the instability of what is being brought forth. In the sense, GOP in exile trying to orchestrate the atmosphere as we step into autumn and what is occurring with next session Congress. And we are just saying, still and yet, Congress never recessed. Even though town hall meetings going on and still and yet, there will be enough for all on all levels of whatever is needed. We have to say, that these stories still and yet, we would not wish to push [inaudible] yet understand the ideas of food sensitivity or that reality in which they would wish to create the atmosphere of food shortages, and yet it is not in a sense a fallacy. There is some of this going on, yet it is a transition of different species of life forms shifting to higher harmonics, speed of light. Where different food stuffs are taking on higher frequencies of living light, living love.

TARA: Well, are you trying to say, Mother, as a person is yet to bring themselves into a higher awareness, their idea of what they need to sustain life indeed it must change right now because the frequencies are becoming more and more light? Therefore, our food becomes more and more light. So those who are still in a more dense diet form, may find a lapse. It has to do with spiritual nourishment more than physical nourishment.

MS: And it is not that you will be deprived of food. You will be given incredible amounts of different kinds of food so that you can sustain the Temple, and it will be something you may have to get used to. Yet, still and all, it will nourish you. Will create the ability to keep this Temple of the Living God in incredible ecstasy and joy. And we are about to reveal maybe new food substances across your planet as those seeds get released from the capstone of the pyramid.

TARA: Now don't forget also that the appearance of lack has always been that, an appearance. And the word appearance is a self-defining term. It is an illusion of that, that appears to be real. And literally, you know, we're taking that literally now, that the appearance of what we are made of has changed dramatically, to a reality where the frequencies of the light coming in, like we've been saying very, very often. It is traveling 10 billion times faster than the speed of light that we are used to receiving from our physical sun. That again requires that we lift ourselves up and seek for the knowledge of the greater anatomy of our being. Therefore, we can learn how to access the nourishment that keeps our soul and body intact. And allows us to enter into that lighter way of, you know, the native people always talk about walking ever so lightly on Mother's breath. How do you think they got across war territory without even being heard? Not even a sound. Imagine treading lightly now on the ground that we walk on, sacred ground.

MS: There is a connection with this and we will speak for a moment about it. In the sense of what Geronimo and others wanted to do with the ghost dance. And we will just say, it is about learning how to become invisible. Learning how to bilocate, transform stuff into living light, living love. Yet you do not do it with hate, you do not do it with war, you do it with love. And all we can say, Swami G shared a story about this over the weekend where he talked about Joseph Stalin and his daughter. And we bet you did not even know that Joseph Stalin had a daughter.

TARA: But we had to, though, because Senator Dodd had to have a mother, and he is the grandson of Stalin.

MS: Correct. Senator Dodd is going to come back to wholeness and love. Let him deal with the bear he had to look at and cross in the sense of the Council on Foreign Relations. We would not want to meet that bear in a dark alley.

[laughter]
