

MARK HUBER TELECALL dated 9/9/09

Part 1 Kilauea

[THANKS to Shirley Cull for this transcription!]

KAUILA: This is Kauila. I'm here on the Big Island of Hawaii and I know this is a very special day for many, many people who are tuning into the 9-9-9 which is today, and perhaps some of you participated in the quiet time and meditation at 9:09 am as I did over here. And I was aware, many of us have taken great leaps to be here and to learn to....

CINDY: Starts recording.

KAUILA: Aloha everyone. This is Kauila. This is the Mark Huber teleconference. Mark and Beth are in Pagosa Springs, CO. Is that Colorado?

CINDY: Yes, and I don't know when the calls are going to be.

KAUILA: We thank you all for being here today. I just wanted to share. We have just been through the event of 9-9-9. The 9th day of September, 2009. This is a tremendous opening of part of this. Mark will have more to say about this, but a great opening of many energetics today and I know that many of you participated and we all thank you for that at 9:09 am.

I wanted to share with you just from this perspective over here because this is like the peak of a whole. We really have accomplished so much and this is like the peak of a brand new opening of many, many portals and a stabilization of the new energies that have come in. We are in the crystal grid right now. Just so you understand, I would like to share this with you. My particular location is about one foot from the edge of Kilauea caldera. I'm about 200 feet up above the surface, and I know that this morning I left Kona at about 7:07 am and got close to the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park at 9:09 am. This was quite a, what happened was, when I was watching Kilauea and Halema'uma'u that's where a lot of steam was coming [up]. A very strong vortex. As 9:09 am came, this vortex opened up immensely and there was a strong connection between here [and there]. There's a large golden crystalline crystal in Kilauea, as I'm standing here now and as this crystal was in front of my eyes, it probably quadrupled or quintupled in size. There was a major opening of this pathway here and it's connecting also with pyramids in Galveston, TX, in Giza, and there is also a pyramid in I believe it's in Lake Titicaca in Peru. I hope that is correct. And we have just succeeded, all of us, in opening these portals and opening these channels so that the new energies can, in other words, the next steps can be taken. Until these energies were established, the next steps, meaning leading up to the various things that will happen here on the planet, these things could not occur.

So I'm being a little bit vague because I'm not sure exactly about all the things that have happened, but if we have a chance, I would like to share what I'm seeing right now at the edge of the Kilauea caldera in Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. Right now, it was sunny earlier, but right now, there is mist over the entire caldera and I can only see down to the floor. This mist is like tiny crystals that are floating from below coming up to the edge. These crystals are saying that we have succeeded. That we have come to a place where they can be a part. The crystalline grid has been established. And this beautiful place, this beautiful site, the mist of Kilauea, I can just now see Halema'uma'u the home of Pele in the distance. Pele wanted me to share with you whatever message she is going to bring through right now so I would like to ask the spirit of Pele and give everyone on this telephone call, on this call, exactly the message that is required for them in these next stages.

Yes dear ones.....

[Various interruptions while Kauila tries to channel Pele]

KAUILA: Can we finish? Pele has tried to come through twice. There is definitely a message here.

CINDY: Yes go ahead. [More interruptions]

KAUILA: Cynthia Susan, let's go ahead and let Pele come through with this message. [interruptions]

[Pele] Yes Dear Ones. We are telling you now, we thank you for coming today. This is the voice of Pele. Yes, I can occupy a male body, I can occupy a male voice because I'm both masculine and feminine and I have both, [and] if we may say, [I have] come through many, many people. This is a very special day. Those of you who have come here today, we thank you for being a part of this grand event called 9-9-9 and we have 2 parts, 9:09 in the morning as well as the 9:09 in the evening. Some of you may be aware of the 9:09 in the morning, but the 9:09 this evening is equally as important for it brings a follow-up wave of energy that is to support all that has happened this morning. We have seen a grand opening of a large portal here at my home in Kilauea. This grand portal also opened and cleared again the large, if you want to say that, the connections between the pyramids at Giza, Galveston, TX, Titicaca and several who we cannot tell you about right now, but this plan is unfolding in a very perfect way.

We see many green colors here now in Kilauea. We see many green colors all over this planet. The grid has been established, the crystalline grid, and the crystals are coming through from the bottom of Kilauea up through the top, enveloping this planet, telling everyone we are here in the crystalline matrix. This crystalline matrix now [is] where all heart desires come to pass. So dark desires can also come to pass. So please use yourself wisely and carefully because their power is very short and very brief. Many things will be cleared, many things are being cleared right now, but you know that every dream that you've ever had is coming to pass right now. We say Mahalo to all of you. Thank you for your love. Thank you for your light. Thank you for being who you are, for who you truly are, and for being in this crystalline matrix with all of us. In the gold and the pink platinum. Mahalo Nui Loa. Thank you very much. Aloha from Kilauea, Madame Pele.

[Invocation of Mother Sekhmet]

TARA: We ask at this time for the heavenly host to come for Maitreya, and for Mother Sekhmet and for Lord Metatron and for Archangel Michael to come and to intercede with their diplomatic immunity and assist this beautiful planet into her higher ascended self. Lady Master Titalacoria, the diamond one, and that all minds, hearts, bodies, and souls can be inspired to attune to her needs in our behalf and to the needs to this galaxy, this universe and all 7 super universes. And that which was planned for all of us, [as we] are the creators and the created. We are the changers and the change, and let that sink in deeply for the understanding and for the actions that we need to take now with our bodies. Greetings Mother.

MS: Greetings wondrous beings of incredible love and joy, peace, freedom.

It is that time in which what you have been waiting for, unfolding as the next gather, darkness holds no energy here whatsoever. This is only about ecstasy, orgasmic joy and love. It is the only way we get to go home and in these moments, what we can say, we will repeat the words of the Sirian Commander who just addressed your nation. The mission that his friend put together, universal healthcare for every man, woman, and child, being implemented. It has to do with removing the shackles of the seemingly bondage. Better call that illusion, that funny name called Maya, and she is a cosmic teacher and a friend. Sri Sri Svami Purna has spoken about Maya. Quite a wonderful teacher. Another way to put it is how Morpheus put it is, I can show you the door, you open it. Step out of that matrix and into the real world. This is 9-9-9.

Different world as we can discuss these hard news _____. Lady Master Nada spoke with us this morning. She is at the UN. She might even be on this call along with Mr. KOS, and said it is time for justice to be served which is the Moorish way for peace, freedom of this planet to be all that she is, Terra Nova. And we are saying, all awaiting these moments for the swift hand of justice falling like the speed of light around your world and even so, it may seem one way. Funny word called _____. It's about that magic word, magic. How you play with words and how you can use them to create light or dark, and it is time for the word. It is about only love and that frequency that comes in with the energies of Maitreya, Michael, Metatron and ourselves. All of what is unfolding on your world now leading you to that moment. Like we have said, where you will have your freedom. It is already unfolding. Every man, woman and child in this country will have what they need to take care of themselves. And all the abundance that they ever, will ever think about, infinitum. All of this unfolding in these moments.

What we can say, what Nada shared with us, is the criminals that are in limbo also are being brought to justice as well. It is about everything and nothing. We speak in this form for still and yet, the mists are a bit murky, yet they are clearing as fast as the light of the noonday sun shines on those coffins. What we say is all who are gathered in these moments on these funny little devices, these ____, it is about that place in which we are ONE voice, ONE heart, ONE mind. The one-hearted people in the sacred group as friends. Teacher, Lady Master, the honey, the yahoo has taught us. It is about the sacred sound of creation. [Mother sings]. As these sounds are brought into physical manifestation, your world shifted to one of incredible joy and all that is unfolding here is one of ecstasy and joy. It is the place in which [to] remove the shackles from the mind, the heart, think with the heart. Forget about the head and it will fall into place automatically. It is part of the drama of how the Menochurians(?), the extra DNA, junk DNA? What do you call it? 24 Codons going off right now. You have the ability to be all that you are. As the Godmen, Godwomen right now. Take that Godhead and use it. [Mother tones and sings]

[Questions for tonight could not be accessed]

KAUILA: Well, I did have a communication with Madame X today. I don't remember every single detail, but she was saying _____. Actually she and her partner, her partner's in Lima at the ocean connecting to me over here, to Pele over here. Madame X is in Aspen physically, but she went to Lake Titicaca and there was quite a, you know, the pyramids were very much enlarged and I'm wondering if she is actually on the call.

[Madame X could not be found]

We were all in our different places and you know, this opening that has happened here has been very, very much a _____, this is so, like I say, everything has been opened and established and is able to support all these clearings. And I should just relate what happened in my own experience, because I had been planning, I had been given notice that I had to leave the apartment I was in on August 1st, so I had until the 15th of this month to move out. I had intended to be at my apartment on 9/9 today, but through a series of events, including the fact that where I was parking my car, it was getting big scratches in it. It wasn't feeling like an attack, it was feeling we want you to move quicker. This was on the morning of the 7th when this happened and it was very clear to me, very shortly after that, it was time to move. I know many other people who are in the same situation where a lot of things are being rapidly cleared out, rapidly moved out of one's experience, from one's emotional bodies, etheric bodies, mental bodies. In my case, a lot of physical, but also the fact that I needed to be somewhere else and I wasn't sure exactly what the deal is. But basically, I'm without an apartment to live in right now. It was very clear to me 2 days ago, keep going. Within 40 hours total I was in the house of a friend. The move was completed last night at 11:30 pm, and I stated a couple of times that I stayed at a house/apartment.

I got up at 6:06 am and the communication was at 7:07 am you were to leave and go to Kilauea. At 7:07 am they got this body going, and I asked them before yesterday, I had asked if this is going to happen, you need to rest my body and you need to clear my body and take care of my body so it can go. This is something of course we all can do. Dr. Lorphan worked on myself, and when I talked to Madame X, the same thing was happening to her and her partner in Peru. So anyway, the communication would come, everything went so very smoothly, I know it was meant to be. Because Pele really needed to have a physical presence. The three of us worked, myself, Madame X and Lolo, we each have keys, and many times we don't have to be physically present, but this time we had to be physically present at our locations. Like mentioned earlier, the openings were very, very massive.

We heard from Mother, and we have today, the Sirian Commander spoke. I did not hear his speech today. I didn't hear that, but will listen to it later, but whenever he is speaking, there are often many levels to what he says. Today, you know the seeds and the process in progress for universal health care for peace for all. The universal health care though. All of the things that have been talked about so far, have been really tilling the soil in many ways for these new crystals. The crystals of all of us beings cared for. We're not talking just about medical care, we're also talking about the care that goes way beyond anything on this physical level. Far beyond doctors. We are very, very close to the galactic care that we have called for. Those who are coming in from the higher realms in their craft are going to appear very soon. I can't say dates exactly, but very soon as we all know, and Mother Sekhmet and Mark and Beth have all said this. This is our time. This is our time. And at the moment as I sit here before Pele at Halema'uma'u, I'm also sitting at the same spot that we called in the 8-8-8 energies of new growth, new clearings. I have to apologize, my voice is starting to go a little bit, it is a little bit tired. I hope you bear with me while my voice takes a rest.

CINDY: I apologize for us not being totally organized, but as you know life is chaos so we get to do the dance.

KAUILA: I know that one of the aspects that has come up very clearly, I know for many people from some of the messages from KOS. Literally, this is a time that we should be, and we desire, to listen to that inner voice. Listen to that inner guidance. Really not to question the inner guidance so much, as once that guidance comes, we go. When the guidance came in my own case, like 2 days ago, the morning on the 7th, I knew immediately it was time to go. I'm sure that many of you are in the same situations, that you are starting to hear you are done with this part of life and starting to hear a new calling. Calling to either leave a location, perhaps move to a new location. Also perhaps to leave various groups. This has been going on for quite awhile. The reason it is important now, as we can see ourselves, we are supposed to be free of anything that does not resonate with our spirit the way it is.

We are not crystalline beings, we are crystal beings. From the inside out we are changing. The crystalline aspect has changed as Mother said, our DNA now is 24 codons. I'm not sure how many we have now, but I'm sure it is a lot more than we had before. At this time, we are very, very supportive in all that we are as we follow the higher guidance. This higher guidance, as we say, it can come. In my case, my higher guidance came as a long scratch along the left side of my car as I parked out on Aliki Drive on _____. That long scratch really woke up some things. Saying you know what, I've got to get off this stretch _____, it is my time to go. It is amazing how much, how quickly the process happens. It just is amazing. So as we go forward with these new energies where at this time, I basically have the freedom of not having a sentient location. I can travel around and to the different places I'm guided to go. Others may be in the same situation. Tara and Rama are on their journey around the mainland assisting in a lot of energies coming up and doing their work on the mainland.

Q&As

KAUILA: I would like Mother, if she could please comment on what happened today at 9:09 on the 9-9-9 and what this means for the ascension of the planet. I kind of leave it open, a pretty wide open question..

MS: What we can say is that the energies that are going on obviously are off the scale with what you are witnessing, with the you might say the increase in frequencies, where your technologies are failing you indeed. Time to be able to talk with what comes directly from pineal pituitary with the sounds of creation instead of these funny devices that are running on batteries. It is also in a sense what is going on is your energies are being amped up at an exponential level. So ultimately what is going to happen here, you are going to be the talking stick and you will talk directly from the 7 chakras and the 9 stars above your head as you achieve the ascension frequencies that are going on right now.

TARA: I also want to ask you Mother in terms of expanding on this, there is an energy that I'm feeling that has taken off and it is the collective mind, heart and spirit for universal understanding for peace and for love. Whatever cog in the wheel there might be, I would say Barack Obama went around the whole clock and went into detail about all of the different approaches that have been being made from, you might say, children misbehaving making up stories, half truths and then on the other side of the spectrum, literally being very considerate so that, you know, anything that might be considered a radical change for everyone would be understood that it is not and has not been the case even since Medicare is the closest thing to universal healthcare that we've ever had. The additions would be that you could choose besides the medical profession, and that of course has always been the problem, you might say, and the solution as he has shown that the medical profession itself has come forward and he said it in his speech. This has never happened before that the medical profession themselves have said that the way insurance has worked has caused much more harm and much more expense than anything. And he said that too. He said, barring nothing, this has cost the American people more than any single other issue that we've ever had, and he said barring none. That includes our military, everybody.

MS: Yes.

TARA: And he said this has been a hundred years that the attempt has been to get to the place where everyone has health care in a good way.

MS: And we would just say, it has been the mission beginning with this character Teddy Roosevelt. Funny name there again with the word magic. Roosevelt, Rockefeller, Rothchild. 13 families who think they can buy a planet for a dime. Sorry Charlie. This planet is not for sale EVER and we have to say it is about that place in which you don't need insurance, you need assurance like your ascension process. We are here to tell you that the assurance is here and now.

TARA: And the assurance has to do with inner knowing that has been suppressed. The record of Teddy Roosevelt has been suppressed. I'll point out that he gave orders to our military at the time in 1901 to completely.....[was interrupted]

CINDY: Tara, will we be able to get on to the other questions soon?

TARA: If you have more questions, yes. Okay, go ahead.

MASTEROFTHELIGHT1: Yes. The vision I have is to create a City of Light, but the basic question is, I can foresee that there will be many Cities of Light throughout the planet now through our new World. Will these Cities of Light all be connected and energetically and will they have healing centers in them? As I intend to have in the one I desire to create. Will there be similar qualities inherent in all these cities of light?

MS: Yes. And your Galactic friends are here to help orchestrate that as you are the creator. We will help you with some ideas to make it made manifest.

DESERTFALCON: Are you able to give a rough date of when our telepathic communication of the masses will start?

MS: Already happening Lady Master Desert Falcon. And we will just say, as you know, the Falcon is Horus the Eye of Ra. And we will just say, we just came from that place on the beach where Ra came through that man ARE and the energies....

TARA: Edward Cayce Institute, Virginia Beach.

MS: Yes. And we will just say, it is the time of man as the song said, we are stardust, we are golden and got to get back that garden now. All the abilities are here. Focus on the third eye, pituitary pineal gland and remember love is the key. Love them even more.

TABBOSON: After NESARA is announced and we have mass landings all over the world, how will education change? Will we be able to learn in areas of personal interest such as astrology, physics, etc.? And will they also teach us a different way of retaining our studying and retaining our knowledge?

MS: Yes. We will say that what will happen after NESARA is announced, and the ship counselors show up to help you integrate the new wisdom of how we are unlearning everything we have learned about Maya, and then we learn a different way. How to be. It is not about going to these concrete prisons called public schools and facilities. It is about a school without walls. It is about the school of the mind and heart where like in the movie, The Last Mimzy. You get to experience the classroom of the universe and wherever that may be. It may be in the moment.

GUEST4: Arrests have been going on behind the scenes for awhile not to crash the economy. Will public arrests come soon?

MS: Yes. Mr. Geithner, Mr. Paulson, Bernacke. He learned the Sirian Commander [is] appointing him again. Still and yet, this is part of that game called Maya. She is a wonderful teacher and remember that it is all just that. Arrests now.

TARA: Publicly.

MS: Yes. This is why Lady Master Nada is sitting in the UN with that cube in that special room.

TARA: What are you talking about? What cube?

MS: There is a special room.

TARA: At the UN?

MS: Yes. And there is Earth encompassed by a special cube, special meditation room only the 13 families use.

TARA: What is that cube's purpose?

MS: It is to, like in a sense, say the Board controls Earth, and it is a sham.

TARA: That has been intercepted and that is why Nada is there?

MS: Yes.

TARA: Okay.

CINDY: Concerning Lady Nada. Is her name made public that is associated with Lady Nada?

MS: That is her name, Lady Master Nada of the Solar Tribunal of Saturn. Nothing less, nothing more. The Twin Flame of Admiral Sananda Kumara.

TARA: And that is her physical name at birth in this lifetime as Lebanese and now citizen of United States.

MS: Yes.

TARA: And Special Lawyer of the World Court.

CINDY: My modem seems to die temporarily around the date 8899 [??] is that because of all the energies coming in?

MS: Yes it is.

CANADA: Would coastlines be inundated in the future? Is it safe to build spiritual centers by the sea front?

MS: Depends on where. We would say, talk to Mother Earth, Father Sky. Listen to your heart as you are guided where to build the Cities. You will be directed as some coastlines in and of themselves, as what is going on. Gaia/Vywamus, their selves. They are Twin Flames and they are the mapmakers of this planet. We would just say, listen to your heart and Father Sky/Mother Earth.

TARA: And there are going to be, as Mother was saying, ship counselors debarking and there are going to be massive landings. We will be able to go up on the ships as well as they come down here. We are going to see the star maps, we're going to see the gridlines. We are going to see Mother Earth's higher soul, and speaking to us and manifesting with us. So we are not doing this alone. That's the deal right Mother?

MS: Yes.

CINDY: One person has been for like the last 5-6 years, about 3 months out of the year, they get migraine headaches, but now they are really intense compared to what they used to be. Is that due to the increase in energies?

MS: Yes and we would recommend taking Niacin for the headaches because that will alleviate the energies. Will open up the capillaries so the blood can flow.

TARA: Also that is Vitamin B3. Also it usually is connected to your 3rd Chakra. The colon passes there. This headache thing is directly connected so be very, very aware of a proper diet, and of course stress can energize and stress out your 3rd chakra which is your power center. So these are the things you must be aware of. Headaches come from stress.

MS: Eat your greens.

CINDY: What kind of feelings and effects that people will be having from the energies that are coming in?

MS: What is happening is more and more of the energies are increasing in magnitude. It is making quite a quantum leap if you will. In some ways, this 9-9-9 energy is polarizing stuff. It is creating quite a cosmic dance. Yet like our friend the Svami Ji said, whatever may be going on with you, got to love it more. And if it is something that your partner is doing, gently let them know, and it is time for a change. And if they are not willing to change, then you are the changer and the change, and they will look at you and OMG, it will shake up ____.

BIGWILL/TEXAS: Good evening Mother and Tara. This Big Will from Texas. The official christening of the Treasury Banks starts tonight. Is this correct?

MS: We would say since you already know, the gold is here and the game is afoot in the sense, the rainbow bills [are] already in the banks and we are already in Treasury banking, but are still playing a bit with the Maya.

TARA: Although the astrology is saying that that Maya is very quickly dissolving this month. Is that not true?

MS: Yes.

TARA: And then next month, on the 1st, that is 2010 banking year so..... and the astrology is saying it is clear sailing for the whole month of October.

MS: Yes, this month of September is going to shake, rattle and roll. The ___ banksters that have held you in shackles for many eons as you saw Chris Story's report. Still games going on with the lies about all the banks, yet it is just a game. Already in Treasury banking, yet they have not officially announced it. If you go into the bank and ask about the Treasury rainbow bills, eyebrows are going to get raised once again, and say, how do you know about this?

TARA: The only thing is, that the energies are going to go very fast right now. The question [is] I think, the etheric down to the physical level, that is a good word for christening of 9-9-9 tonight.

MS: Yes..

TARA: Triple love coming through on all 3 levels.

MS: Yes.

MARIETTA: I just experienced an earth tremor just a few minutes ago. I don't know whether that's been other places as well, but since it just happened, it might be a good time to see if that's happening around the world anywhere else. It was just an earth tremor.

TARA: Are things being shaken around in the house or what?

MARIETTA: No, it didn't shake anything off the wall, but I could feel it. I just call it an earth tremor because you can feel the vibration, shaking up something. It wasn't violent like an earthquake, it was just a tremor. Maybe we should ask Mother if there is a meaning for this or what it is about?

TARA: Mother, everyone wants to know what all this earth tremoring.

MS: It is about Gaia/Vywamus let everyone know that we mean business. Not a game. No games. Vywamus/Gaia mean total shakedown. If you are in a place of love, so be it. If you are in a place of anything other than that, hasta la vista baby.

DAVID63: This is David in Santa Fe. My question is concerning the 09 energies, is how best we can use them in helping other people. I don't know how many people I can really help that aren't really ready to hear the information. How do we know when we can help other people to send them up as well?

MS: How you best serve these energies right now is working with all the love you can hold and more. In the sense of how we create peace and working towards that goal by sharing the understandings of the political, economic, social structures that are going on, and dispelling the lies about how the fake war on terror, 9/11, all the issues that keep coming up. The idea that death panels are going to kill granny.

TARA: Well, all that was covered tonight publicly in front of Congress. Although I think Mother, what about just magnetizing to yourself the energies by being love, being calm, and people when they feel that energy and they notice it, then they come and they get in a present state with you and they ask you for help, one way or another. I mean just walking down the street, people get magnetized to your light.

MS: Yes, we had an interesting event going on where we were on the East Coast and we met a guy who he was a bit out there and he saw the light around us and he was a homeless man and he said, I ain't never seen light like that around you or anyone. Where you from? And we told him. We are from the Southwest, and he said, you are some kind of angel, thank you for coming into my life. I can remember the light.

TARA: Does that help David?

DAVID63: Yes, thank you very much.

WESTMI: Hi Mother. I would like to ask basically after NESARA and First Contact, one of the things I look at as being a beautiful moment is when all Twin Flames can join one another and the special love triangle they will have. Will that be on ships or will that be on Mother Gaia?

MS: It will be both. It is about as above, so below. As we amp it up here with the bodies on the ascension frequencies it matches, what is going on, as we rise to the occasion. You might say, the Galactics lower their frequencies so they match so we don't burn each other out. In that sense, as we come in as solar beings, as ___ of light, we would say your understanding, you would not be able to handle it as a physical sun coming into your dimensional reality. The plasma light would cause instant spontaneous combustion. So we are saying, as you rise to the occasion, and we in a sense lower the shields, we got a match made in heaven.

TARA: And on Earth.

MS: Yes.

TARA: In other words, we are really being assisted greatly to bring us and lift us. And the Galactics are coming to meet us. Every day it is increasing - no more gap right?

MS: No more.

TARA: We will be very familiar with these frequencies on Earth as it is in heaven very rapidly now.

MS: Yes.

MARK: Hello this is Mark and also....

BETH: This is Beth.

MARK: We have journeyed. Welcome Mother.

MS: Yes. How are things in those lovely mountains?

MARK: They are absolutely testifying, validating, and wondrously enjoying this major improvement, if you want to call it that, that happened today, and we would like to share a little bit about our journey up here today before we arrived for our little group here. If that's okay with everybody.

Part 2

MARK: Well, first of all today, we traveled from New Mexico up to Colorado today, and we got to about the half way point, we were feeling some very strong indications. But we got to the half way point, and Beth turned to me and I was driving and she said, I just have a couple of questions for you. And she said, just so you know it, Metatron is sitting over your left shoulder and is present in the car. Well, I can tell you, this is a personal experience now and you can extract from it whatever you want or nothing as you choose. However, for us what happened from there until now has been one focusing wave of higher consciousness interweaving with and influencing our normal consciousness. And yes, we had 2 cups of coffee, but that's all.

As we got closer and closer to Colorado, we not only had the answers to 2 questions which required us to review, as all of us here are being required to review now on this day that which we thought we knew, that which we know we knew, and that now we are open we are to replace even that list. We have been instructed to find a place preferably high altitude, and to go there and to meditate and to receive another message. So we did, and where the place we ended up was Wolf Creek Pass Scenic Overview, wherever anyone who has been up here might know where that is. Any case, we went up there, slightly misty-rainy but beautiful.

Wonderfully fresh and vitalized. I'll let Beth tell you what happened there as we got to the parking lot and got out of the car.

BETH: Well, we went and looked at the scenic overview and then we came back in the car and we were looking at the mountains surrounding this area, and I noticed that there were, when you looked at the rocks in the mountains, they almost looked like faces smiling at us and they were beaming energies to us, and the elements were speaking and I heard them say, when ones like you come here and love us this way this much, we feel that energy. They said what happened today was the activation of the Emerald Crystalline. We feel it in our core and we have been waiting a long time for this day. When they heard that, it made me feel so emotional because I could feel all the love beaming to me from the mountains, and they said, this is a celebration, and then all the mountains around, I could hear them. They were toning. I was hearing this beautiful toning coming from all the surrounding mountains and I just, it made me cry. I was just in this deep experience of love being returned from the elementals in this area. I couldn't stop crying and it lifted me up so much, and then I said to Mark, well, I was wondering why, you know, we were told to go to a place outside of the city to receive a message today. And I said, I think it's because when I was asked if people asked me what happened this day? Do you know what happened this day, that I would know down to the very core of my being and I could feel that. So I can't equal that experience with anything that's ever been received before. It was just incredible. This is sheer _____, the mountains, with these tones, just filled my heart with joy and I just sat there and cried for several minutes. It was amazing.

MARK: And then you went inside and you contacted Ashtar and St. Germain, and what did they tell you about what happened today? They verified it that it had indeed occurred and was still continuing now. And then there was some other information that came through, but to hear the singing that was taking place by the nature beings was not something we expected, and this reached all the way down of the crystal core of Mother _____. Then we came up and we were receiving questions and answering questions and exchanging with a small group here, and there was such an energy of solidarity and unity that everyone commented on it, and then after about an hour of that exchanging going on, it was hard to pull [away] from the, to break that part of the energy, and open up a line to actually the New Jerusalem, and then Beth you want to share what came through?

BETH: Tonight we received a message from St. Germain from the ship, and I asked, please give us a statement from the Galactic Council regarding 9-9-9, and St. Germain said, Greetings, this is St. Germain. I would like to speak to you tonight about the meaning of 9-9-9. This is a time of completion in body, mind and spirit for all the prepared ones. As we move through this completion today, we look ahead to new beginnings. Now is the time for those listening to come into their leadership role. It is a time to look inside and review your lives, and how you are spending your time in making decisions, and review of this is in alignment with your life mission. How do we know what our life mission is? We here at the Ashtar Command [are asking] each one to ask and allow new information to enter your realm of understanding.

Many of you will be taking on roles that you have prepared for. However, these new roles will not always appear to be the same work that you are doing now. As the changes occur on the new Earth, so many things will change. Nothing will operate as it does now. When NESARA is announced and balance is brought into play regarding reparation of what is owed to each one, this will free up persons from operating from a place of survival. This will bring into the spotlight each one's creative talents. We will be asking leaders to serve in ways they haven't before. In other words, there will be new roles, new organization, and such a delivery of service and how these are accomplished. Many will be trained very quickly to utilize the new technologies which will be available. On 9-9-9 when the crystalline activations went into play, this made [created] what is needed to interface with the technology available from the Galactics. Computers we use are sentient, and they went in the crystalline grid around Earth. Not until [that] activation occurred was it possible for us to connect to this grid. One example of this is the new healing technology. Our diagnostic equipment, as well as the light technology we use for healings, will be available almost immediately after mass decloakings. Those prepared to use this technology may be trained to implement these new tools for healing. This is only one example. This is why we ask each one, go inside and listen to your guidance as you daily prepare for what comes next. Be ready to accept the new Earth plan, as it will be greatly different than you can now imagine. As you receive guidance and align with new ideas, this will prepare you to be ready for the changes as they occur. If you feel inspired to read, study or learn something you have not done before, allow this creative energy. We stand by and guide you as these changes occur. We especially ask, before turning in each night, those who feel prepared, request training on the ships. This is available to you now. As the training progresses, you will bring back memories from your night work. We thank you all for your continued good work. Blessings, St. Germain.

MARK: _____ to the place we've had before. We have had 3 different types of verification, and we did not hear what Mother's comments are so we will ask her also. Perhaps augment this with a statement on the subject with what occurred today. There is a couple of other things we can mention that we were given. A couple I think we've mentioned before. As a result of this crystalline connection and opening today, as St. Germain worded it, all the prepared ones, which is virtually all the Lightworkers on the planet. All [is] 51% crystalline which means there is no stopping this. It is absolutely happening. It has reached the critical mass where it has achieved the goal on the causal plane, and now it vibrates through all the layers with the support now of these big crystals. These 3 additional crystals bring us to 75% activation of full ascension. That means every one of us today, before we go to bed tonight, we can celebrate that we have passed a ring past knot. In other words, we have made it to the other side, and everything we do, everything that we are from here on in, will reflect that higher possible fluid crystalline consciousness imbued with only love, with reverence for each and all and that cannot be sustained by anything less than peace. And peace as we all know, first had to start within our own hearts. The Emerald Green Crystal today insured this achievement is now realized. We have 2 overlapping timelines. An old timeline which now is already breaking up, and all of those wedded to that old timeline will be leaving to make new choices, because anything not in alignment, which is all matter of things being and seeing, pollution, crime, corruption, not for the highest good for each and all concerned, is not reverent to all life. This is no longer debatable. It is included in the core, the heart of the new Holographic Matrix that we activated today especially that Emerald Crystal....

CINDY: We lost you Mark, last thing we heard was Emerald Crystal.

MARK: Yes, we're talking about the activations incident to the crystal heart activation, that Emerald Green Crystal in Arkansas and the 2 other ones that followed that. We are now almost at the 12th hour. So we have 2 octaves. We have 9:09 am and then 9:09 pm which is the higher echo, which reinforces, strengthens and spreads and infuses these effects throughout the planet.

One of the effects of these was alluded to, but a few more details might be in order. The equipment and devices used to clean up the water, the air, the soil and to power a New Way on the planet, that is used for that. The power for that is now active on the planet. And some of these things are called Replicators. This is the way we replace the power sources that have fueled our planet, our cars, our vehicles, our trains, our busses, our airplanes. That as of now is possible. They changed that because all the answers are here. All the technologies are here and with this activation today, we can begin to access and work with these new frequencies and technologies, and that does not give an exact timetable, and perhaps Mother can speak more about that issue of how this outpictures. But with this core of all the prepared ones opening their crystalline hearts today, [it] activates. That means the migration from carbon-based to crystalline for all the prepared ones has occurred and others will all follow because this is an average. And critical mass for the whole planet has now been achieved due to all of your work. All of us working together has anchored this in every country on the planet and in the crystalline core of the Earth Mother. So nothing can stop this, and all the changes we are talking about, both with NESARA as well as with all the other programs, required this level of our availability. Now we are able to operate with Galactic equipment which supersedes ALL 3D equipment. This is very good news and it has a very large implications. St. Germain said, virtually nothing will remain unchanged. And we would like to ask Mother if she would speak to the issue about how these changes can now happen. Mother would you care to advise us about this?

MS: Okay. As we have talked about before, what you said, that we will bring it into the understanding, that as what you know about the www.venusproject.com and Klymatica light dust addendum, takes only 7 people to run the technologies of the Living Cities of Light. Dr. Jacques Fresco spoke about [this] as you begin to build your circular spherical cities of living light, living love. You'll never have to touch the Mother's blood again. Already technologies are here and being implemented. Would be wise to take maybe your friend from the far east with their technologies of mac level trains as well as the other technologies. Anti-gravity already bring made manifest. As your planet [is] already free. Much of this will be revealed to you; already the ones who have hidden all of this information quickly having to face their makers if you will. In the sense that they cannot hide it any longer. About the fact that everything you need, want and desire can be made manifest by crystalline thought patterns. That is the real key. Since you are creator gods, it is about time you learned how to physically manifest it, eh? In crystals are the key. It is what we used in Atlantis/Lemuria. And as you work with the crystalline core, those come to mind, pink platinum pyramids around your planet. We went to ___ exhibit in this place where they supposedly hide your Ark of the Covenant. We just have to say, all of the crystals across your planet dancing in ecstatic orgasmic joy of what [is] unfolding of the energies of your living light, living love.

TARA: Mother, I was just going to say, Dr. Cody already has this technology on the planet where it completely restores your DNA back to your original blueprint. Where the DNA can be completely restored to its original blueprint. It's available right here, right now. The Baksheesh and I say the blessings [to] activate this and this can be done planetary[-wide]. And the cosmic codes will never ever be taken away again.

MS: Yes, your 24 codons going off as you achieve the abilities to be godmen/godwomen. This is why we speak about this in ___ to be able to understand from your stories, myths and legends. The metacarpals like in Starwars, X-Men, the heroes. All of these fantastical stories of who you are, where with a single thought you can heal. It is about that reality coming forth and the energies of what you have as creator gods now. It is at your fingertips as we go through this moment of 9-9-9 blessing. Nothing the same as it was. No turning back. This is why we have to say, as what is unfolding here, what you are witnessing, the very air you breathe starting to shift, in the sense the pristine prana of all that is with the in-breath, with the out-breath, merging of that living light/living love. It is....

TARA: Advanced learning is instantaneous at that point right Mother?

MS: Yes.

TARA: It's not like we have to study our books forever and ever.

MS: Put a book under your pillow, in the morning you will know it.

TARA: Right, exactly. Because we got that connective missing link, [it] is back altogether.

MS: It is like Clark Kent, he puts his hand on the map book, and instantly reads. He knows the text, he knows everything in about 3-4 seconds. All of this is happening to all of you, and you may not seem to get it and yet that is a funny word. Seem. Got to let go of what you already, preconceived ideas. Step into the nagual, walk with the Jaguar Medicine Man. We heard an incredible story today about a man who went to Bali to work with the jaguars. And this man, he stuttered. Not to change the subject, Commanders. But, this man, he was speaking about his reality, and this tied in with what you are speaking about, the free energies and how you communicate with the animals. With your soul matrix, your Twin Flame.

TARA: Oh that's right. This man, he figured out that he had Tourette's.

MS: Tourette's Syndrome.

TARA: He figured out that he didn't have Tourette's Syndrome when he would talk to his animals. He had little animals, and every day he would sit in his closet in the dark with all his little animals and he did not stutter with them.

MS: Did not have the Tourette's Syndrome. And when he evolved with the understanding of the language of the heart [he no longer had TS]. That language, telepathic frequency. It is the Force. It is all around us. In us. That is what makes up the free energy; as you work with the crystalline core grid patterns of this planet, ask to speak to those crystalline lattice structures. They will speak back to you. Even if you are only imagining it and you think it ain't happening, it is happening. No question. It is about that place where you jump off the cliff and you know you can fly and when you open your eyes, you go OMG, I am flying.

MARK: Mother, this is Mark. I wonder if I can ask an add-on to the Venus Project subject?

MS: Yes.

MARK: Okay. This is from a letter from one of our people over in Hawaii, and she says, Venus Project represents a bold new direction for humanity, that entails nothing less than the total redesign of our culture and offers a comprehensive plan for social reclamation in which human beings, technology and nature will be able to coexist in a long term sustainable state of dynamic equilibrium. This seems the most positive solution I've come across at this point. So here's my question. Can this be a reality for our Earth? And if so, how quickly can this come into reality? In other words, do we have to wait until 2012 to see dramatic positive Earth changes? Thank you for considering this question.

MS: We will say, you are witnessing it right now. If you go to Zeitgeist, the movement.

TARA: Zeitgeist the movie, the movement.

MS: Yes. If you go to www.zeitgest.com or www.zeitgestmovement.com. Peter Joseph and Dr. Jacques Fresco every week, every 2 weeks, have a radio address dealing with these issues.

TARA: On Wednesdays around 1:30 Mountain, so wherever you are after that.

MS: We will just say, Tim Robbins, Susan Sarandan and ___ with Dr. Jacques Fresno and his lady Marilyn, Peter Joseph, another interesting fellow; Dr. Fred Allen Wolf put his hat in the ring with Dr. Jacques.

TARA: These are all the wealthy visionaries and they already have their gold certificates, everyone. They have done a lot of foundational work before now to get this ready to go. All that is needed to occur is occurring tonight. This is it. It really is. Mark, you did a good job and Beth too saying it in your own words. How many ways to say this? We are going home together very quickly now. It is not a waiting game. Remember 2004 already had 2012 in place. And then you know, now this is... it's very few moments in time for even the most stuck person to get unstuck. Is that a fair way to put it, Mother?

MS: Yes. And as we would put it in the language of Ramus and Remus, jolong tui.

TARA: What does that mean?

MS: My heart is full.

MARK: Mother? We would like to share one more thing here. There has been an awful lot of information out there on the subject of Twin Hearts, Twin Flames, and Twin Souls. And much confusion when you look on the Internet. This bothered us. And so one of the things we decided to do was, instead of doing something we had planned to do, that we asked Metatron to explain the difference between Twin Flames and Twin Rays. And Beth, would you care to tell them what Metatron said?

BETH: Yes, Mother Sekhmet, you were just mentioning about the Twin Flames, and we have been instructed over and over. To start a telepathic communication, like you said, with the crystalline lattice work. Even if you think you are imagining it, it is really happening. And Mark and I together have been working with connecting with our Twin Flames, and it feels like every time we take a step in that direction that we get closer and closer to bringing that into the physical, and that's been something we've been working on together. So we were interested in having clarification, so we asked Metatron, and I want to read the reply to you.

Metatron. Greetings. Please explain to us the difference between Twin Rays and Twin Flames. Twin Rays exist in octaves above Twin Flames. Twin Flames are capable of individualized incarnate embodiment. Twin Rays exist in octaves above as pure light. There is confusion between the two because they are each an aspect of the other. At the moment you are created, it appears as a water droplet of pure light which divides immediately into true sounds. One male and one female, and otherwise exactly the same in every way. These are the divine compliments of each other in perfect sound. The first expression of this divine creation is the Twin Ray of Light. From the Twin Ray of Light then is born an expression in form. The expression in form of the Twin Ray becomes the Twin Flame. These are the individual forms which have expression in the physical. The Twin Rays express themselves in the dimensions above the 352nd dimension. Twin Flames express themselves in the dimensions below the 352th dimension. If one were in an incarnate body, and this is a Galactic Human Clone and they dropped to the ground, underneath would be the light which is the Twin Ray. They are the same expression reflected from 2 different octaves. So Mother Sekhmet, we would love it if you would be able to comment more about this to help us, guide us as we reconnect with our Twin Flames before we meet with them in the physical. Thank you.

MS: We would only say as your how you eloquently put it with the words of Metatron, co-conspirator in this divine realm of love and light. We would just say, you are in affirmative as Twin Rays are [an] octave above the Twin Flames.

TARA: But didn't Metatron completely merge with that ray of wisdom and pure light in one moment, you might say, in one life without ever dying, and that was to confirm that "7th generation onto now" concept. As he actually came into the planet, the 7th generation from Adam and Eve, and literally self-corrected what Cain did by creating an act of killing, you might say. In other words, the solution was already attained by Metatron coming into the planet, and then combining that pure ray of love with a physical manifestation, and has never left the planet.

MS: And we would just say, the Twin Rays of that essence of living love, living frequencies of all that is. It is what we can only describe to you all as balls of plasma energy, when you are at that stage of the pulsating sun frequency sun/son. That energy is creative force of how we communicate at that level. No voices are heard unless we desire to use sound frequencies, but yet how we communicate is what you would describe as static electricity, and your scientists [are] only now beginning to understand this. When you listen to the frequency of how clouds speak to each other, how planets speak to each other, stars. The star fields in the sense of the gaseous nature of what we can only describe as plasma energy that drifted in deep space. Yet, it is not just not a random act of the big bang, it is about the organized chaos that is going on in the divine matrix of all that is. As the energies, only way we know how to describe it, as it is stepped down into physical manifestation, a way in which it is a way in which we can tangibly taste it, touch it. How that works, is when you ask for that complement of your other half to merge with you, we best describe it in Svami Purna's [inaudible/interference]. Sri Sri Sri Svami Purna has described it. When you merge with that divine counterpart of your Twin Flame in the act of creative love, it creates ripples of rays of living love all throughout the universe. That effects living matter in such a way that the frequencies move up in octave.

TARA: For everyone and of course, it is the choice of everyone to have it accessible for themselves.

MS: Yes.

TARA: And it can be that and it can be misused as well. And of course the experiment has done everything. We have done....we are just saying, love is the absolute answer.

MS : Yes. It is that place in which you and I are ONE. As you ask for that divine _____ to occur, in joy and ecstasy, you will feel it too in the cells.

CINDY: Mark, to let you know, they were not able to download the questions for Mother to answer from the different people that have been sending in questions. Are you able to remember some of the questions and what your answer would be?

MARK: Yes we can. We'll also... I just want to remind everyone that we have exactly 3 minutes. In 3 minutes from now, it will be in mountain time anyway, it will be 9:09 pm so in the time we're in, we're about to meet the 12 hours since the 9:09 am activation of the Emerald Crystal.

Some of these questions that we received, we are combining and consolidating into a general statement while still answering the questions from several at the same time. And we will continue this on after the coming days so that.... So many questions came in, we will continue to answer these in the coming days. We will work hard to answer all of these questions. A few of these that came forward. For example, here's a question from today. What happens to all the people that died on 9/11/01 and the question is, would they be coming back or staying in their higher realms? If so, then after all of this new technology comes about, would it be possible to manifest a body for the people who died on that day and come back again? A second part of that is also myself being a bit shy on this subject, since duality would be going, what would become of sexuality after ascension? Is it like adding more chakras? So being what you are now with the extra awareness, or is it something else? And what happens to our pets? So this is 3, the start of 3 things in one. Their first one had to do with the people that died on 9/11/01. Of course, we know many of them were taken up on the ship and can come back. So then, what they really want to know, can they manifest a new body or will they come back, if they were taken up to the ship in their old body, and that would be so? If we can ask you to comment and I can repeat the 3 parts of that if you want to. Mother or Tara, would you care to comment?

MS: We will just say that as they would to choose to come back, that is their free will choice.

TARA: And they can come back in their past bodies, only it would be completely well and healed, or they can choose to move on and come into a new body. It is up to them. The thing is, Mother you opened that dispensation for those who wish. They can come back to their families healed in the body that they left. Correct?

MS: Correct.

MARK: The second part of that was, what about sexuality after ascension? Which in some ways, for many people, are right now. Because three-quarters ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) of ascension has been now achieved. So what happens to that: is adding more chakras, just adding extra awareness, or is it something else?

MS: It is in that understanding when you work with that sacred Kundalini energy. It is about creating such a divine complement of that frequency of incredible living light/living love. That it is taken to a level in which only way we know how to describe it is the merging of Krishna and Rama.

TARA: Well also, Mother, we and Mark and Beth, we talked about this in a call before that. As you understand the geometry of sacred sex, you actually create new beings that are enhanced in their DNA beyond what we can imagine. They are fully functional, and they understand divine love from the very onset of their manifestation through love of one another. I think these little beings that you have, Beth and Mark, they are actually your Twin Flame energies, yet you want to say a little more about that yourself, Mark?

MARK: Well, I don't claim to be an authority on it. Since this is like they say, a work in process. My understanding is, one of the reasons that Beth and I work together so well is because we are not Twin Flames. It is rather, there was you might say, a slight delay in the creation where it's very close, very similar, so there is many resonances there. However, there is still a Twin Flame for each of us, whom we have been experiencing meeting with, and even this working with, and in fact Metatron and [inaudible]. They had crafted/designed just for us, two twin pairs in this case, displayed a sun star, and this sun star was key to each of our hearts so that we can keep track of each other. No matter where in the universe we might be, and to also share simultaneously from both levels. And [with] this we can add energy to each other's doings whatever they may be, and this is turning out to be very energetically useful. Mother, would you care to comment on that particular aspect of it?

MS: We will just say it is about that frequency of as you come together, line [up] all the chakras in divine complement of each other, [it] creates such magic. Only way we know how to describe it is like what Rama Ji said, it is the merging with Krishna with Rama with the universe. And as you watch that unfold, the fractals of infinity continue to manifest infinitum. How that works like you [interference/inaudible].

TARA: I was going to say Mother, this is like an infinite cycle. In other words, the merging of Krishna ____ goes on infinitely. When Rama, when he first....., what is it like to go up in the beam? He said, like trillions of orgasms that never stop. You literally create these kind of energies and they never go away. In other words, they are tangible consistently. It might be a temporary appearance that something looks like it has changed, and it's a simple reminder and it's back again. It just never ever ends because we're constantly creating the way we designed our own bodies originally. We designed it never to end.

MS: No. It just keeps going, and going, and going.

MARIETTA: I mentioned early in the program tonight that I was feeling like we had Earth tremors and this has continued through this whole evening. While I'm realizing now that it isn't necessarily [that]. It is what I thought was Earth tremors but it is just as though almost an energy that is at the base of the spine, and what I'm understanding is that, and I would like you to comment. It is as though as I'm breathing this energy in to activate, and I'm just getting a validation on this while I'm speaking. So help us understand what is happening here. It feels like it is activating all the chakras from the base up, and it has continued through this whole program. That is why I'm feeling that it is almost as though I'm helping to birth this for the planet or for the people on the planet. So can you please help us understand what is happening?

MS: What is happening Dear is....

TARA: Is Vywamus and Lady Master Titalacouria reflecting back to us ecstatic love?

MS: They are indeed.

TARA: And your Kundalini activated because it is aligned.

MS: Let us just say that as 9-9-9 is unfolding, everybody [is] feeling that cosmic dance of ecstasy and it's going on right now. In that sense, enjoy the ride.

TARA: And I do want to say that Barack Obama did something to contribute to the release of this energy. He really covered everything and I just love the way he works. It is quite magnanimous.

MS: The body is fading.... (Rama)

MARK: Actually, what I would suggest at this time, if everybody is open to that, is that everyone on this call take into consideration, going before, as they go to bed tonight. Knowing now that we have completed 12 full hours of a basically complete shift to crystalline, and all the prepared ones. That means everything has to change. St. Germain requested that all people who already have visions with strong, strong desires to achieve those visions that they go in at night now. Just before they go to sleep, ask to be taken up to the ship so they can confer with advisers to refine their program, so that any training they need to fully implement their vision at the highest degree of resonance and appropriateness with the divine plan now, that they be assisted immediately in achieving that. And also asking for any assistance that they might need on any level including the new healing methodologies that are available as of now on the ships. In particular, the Arcturians have what we call a "car wash" which is a very, very high advanced opportunity, where it does not have to be invasive and it is very thorough. In doing things before, it had to be surgically. So augmentation of healing and preparation to do that work [be] implemented as soon as possible. That we would recommend that anyone who has not availed themselves of opportunity, it is now available to you. Thank you all for coming together.

CINDY: The one questions wasn't answered. You have many, many, many pet lovers here. The question was about pets.

MARK: Yes. They want to know if the pets can go with us, for one thing. What will happen to our pets? Will they evolve and be like, we won't go into the joke, will they ascend or will they evolve into the next ship. Can they go with us if we go back to the ships?

MS: We will just say, your animal friends are angels and devas....

TARA: And even fairies in those animal bodies.

MS: And they are evolving as you are evolving, and it is a divine compliment that they ask to step into your lives to express the language of the heart which is only love, and at that level, when they meow or bark, it is the only way they know how to communicate in your 3D world. Yet, they are.....

TARA: Yet, they are saying everything.

MS: They are. What is occurring, as they are evolving, you are evolving. As we move up in octaves and frequency, as the ascension energies continue to occur unabated. As the frequencies amp up, these are Angels, Devas, Fairy Lords. As you witness your own ascension, they are ascending too and you will see them. In the sense where as they take on the understanding of the angelic metatronic presence, some of these beings actually ask to incarnate into physicality with humans, godmen/godwomen. It is at that level in which it is about how the spiritual hierarchy works.

TARA: Mother, isn't it true though that we read about this 3-4 years ago when Daia (?) was coming on the calls and saying to us that the Fairy kingdoms, the Elven kingdoms, all of these....

MS: The Dwarves...

TARA: The Dwarves, these beings understand higher love, and they actually unite in communion with their higher selves in ways that humans have maybe degraded their own selves to lesser vibrations. And as now, we are coming back and meeting ourselves at our original causal level, they also can come with us. Yet, they've been waiting for us. And we are the ones we've been waiting for, and they have been waiting for us, literally. I mean is that not true, Mother?

MS: Yes. We will just say, many of these beings are, like we have spoken about many years now. Many of these pets as you call them, not just pets, they are Paschat Warriors. They are Elves, they are Fairies, Hobbits, Dwarves, Angels.

TARA: And Mother, this is bringing us back to the time of Avalon, because there was no veil between these kingdoms and the animal kingdoms, where these kingdoms [were] and still are. Aren't the people of Middle Earth going to be coming to the surface again?

MS: Already here. This is why all the stories are coming out about the Ring Lords and the various wars that occurred throughout Middle Earth. Just a reflection of what occurred on your surface.

TARA: Mother, I want to tell a real quick one. In Tucson, I had a psychic surgery. In the backyard, this lady had all these gnomes and they actually were in the garden. And she had kitty cats and the kitty cats could see the gnomes and you could watch them play together. I actually got to sit in the garden after I had my psychic surgery and I was watching this.

MS: We, you, were there, and Commander Mark was there with our friend from the Aborigines land. Murray Murphy's backyard. A dog got up on his paws on the table.

TARA: Oh, when I was getting that healing.

MS: The dog put his two cents into the table where he helped Lady Master Green Tara here with her healing.

TARA: And the dog's name was Honeybear and the spirit of Honeybear has left. A dear spirit. A fellow dog just very prior to this event. I remember that. He got right up when.... and this was with Jerry Bolstock. He is an aboriginal healer and he had magenta crystal wands from that part of the land of southwest, you know, like Perth and down in that area of Australia. Yes, the crystal kingdom, the animal kingdom, the fairy kingdom, and human kingdoms have never been separate.

MS: And this is why all of creation together now in ONE voice, ONE heart, ONE mind.

TARA: Oh, and the flowers of course.

MS: The flowers are the expression of the divine compliment and Creator Source's love for all of you. The flowers, the human....

TARA: Oh I just remembered, I was going up these stairs down in Texas. This man who was teaching and had actually written a book about the secret life of plants. He had this succulent plant, it was 5 feet tall and it was at the top of the stairs and when I got up to the top of the stairs, this plant bowed to me, everybody. There is so much we are going to have. I mean, it's already happening and we just got to join in.

MS: You now the stories about the tree shepherds, tree beards in ___ Forest. Not a joke. The shepherds are here.

MARK: Well Mother, I would just like to add a personal experience that I've always wanted to talk to the nature beings and always could. But I hadn't heard their answer in a way that was a full answer to me. I could feel what they were doing, but I couldn't actually receive. And in the last couple of weeks, in particular yesterday morning, I had 2 lucid dreams in which I not only communicated with them and acknowledged their divinity and presence, but they responded in English. That is what it sounded like to me, but really they were telepathically communicating and I was able to hear them in my own language and it was hilarious. Some of them looked pretty unusual, let's put it this way. Yet, they were learning up against my hand [and] wanted to be petted. I thought this was most unusual. This is what I think is coming as the magical realms come back out into the world. Is that we will have some very interesting conversations.

MS: Yes indeed, we will say that as you witness your 4-legged friends in the ones that fly, the ones that swim, the ones that show up when you least expect it, out thin air. They will teach you how to do this as well. It is like what the other man said today. That language of the heart. It is not about a physical language, it is the language of love and nothing else.

MARK: Thank you, Mother. I understand that Rama is tired now and you have been in there a long time. We certainly appreciate your hanging around and to have [shared] so much. Thank you Tara and Rama, and all of you out there on the call, thank you for showing up on this incredible day that is just the beginning. This is where it all starts now. We no longer want to look backwards and moan and groan about what isn't here. We now have the means to make it so as the Captain said. Thank you.

MS: Second star to the right, straight on until morning.

MARK: Amen, and I'll follow.

MS: Yes.
